THE 1967

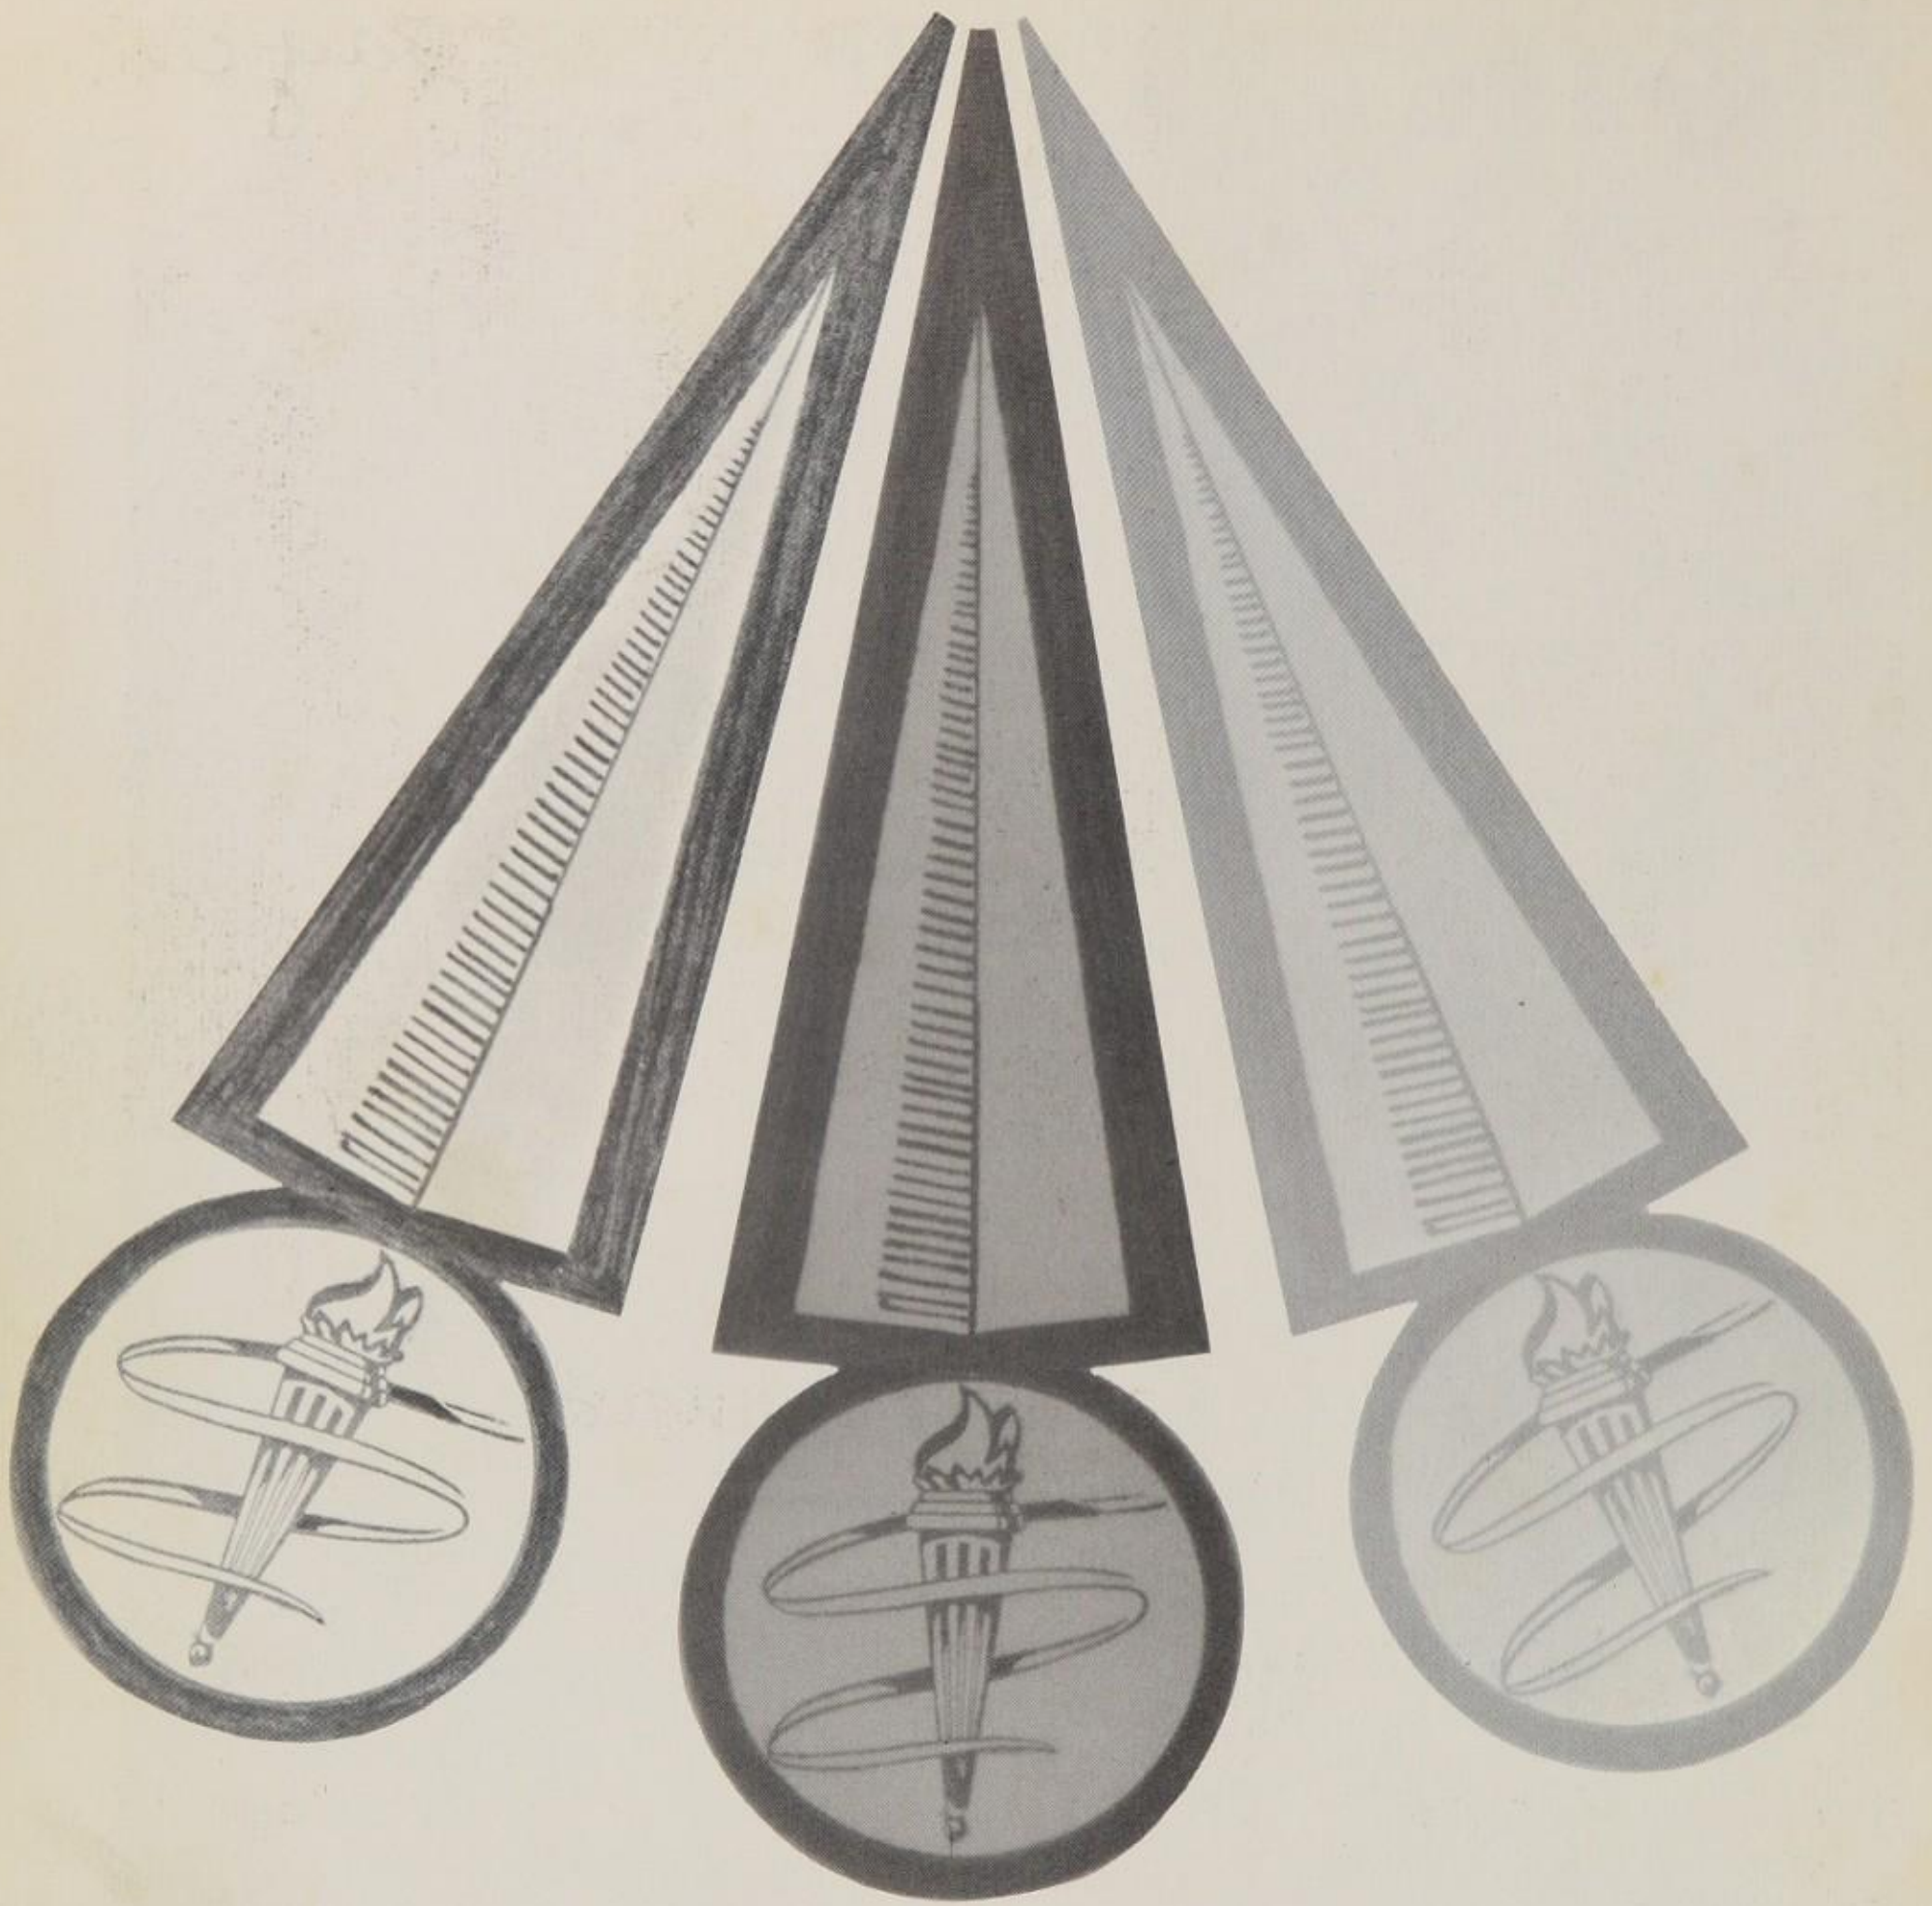

COLUMBIAN

Published by the Senior Class

Columbia High School

Columbia, Illinois

The passing of this school year marks the end of one year in our high school careers. This year has had many different meanings and has brought about many changes for the students at CHS. To some it has been the beginning of a new phase in life. To others it has meant the end of that phase in life. To all students it has meant another step up the ladder of life to something new and different. As time passes with the pendulum's swing, these changes are inevitable. This year has had its disappointments and joys for every student at CHS. The importance of these things to us as individuals may not always be remembered as clearly as we would prefer. These things cannot all be recorded here, but this book can serve as a reminder of these memories. We begin our journey through the 1966-1967 school year as the pendulum begins its swing.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

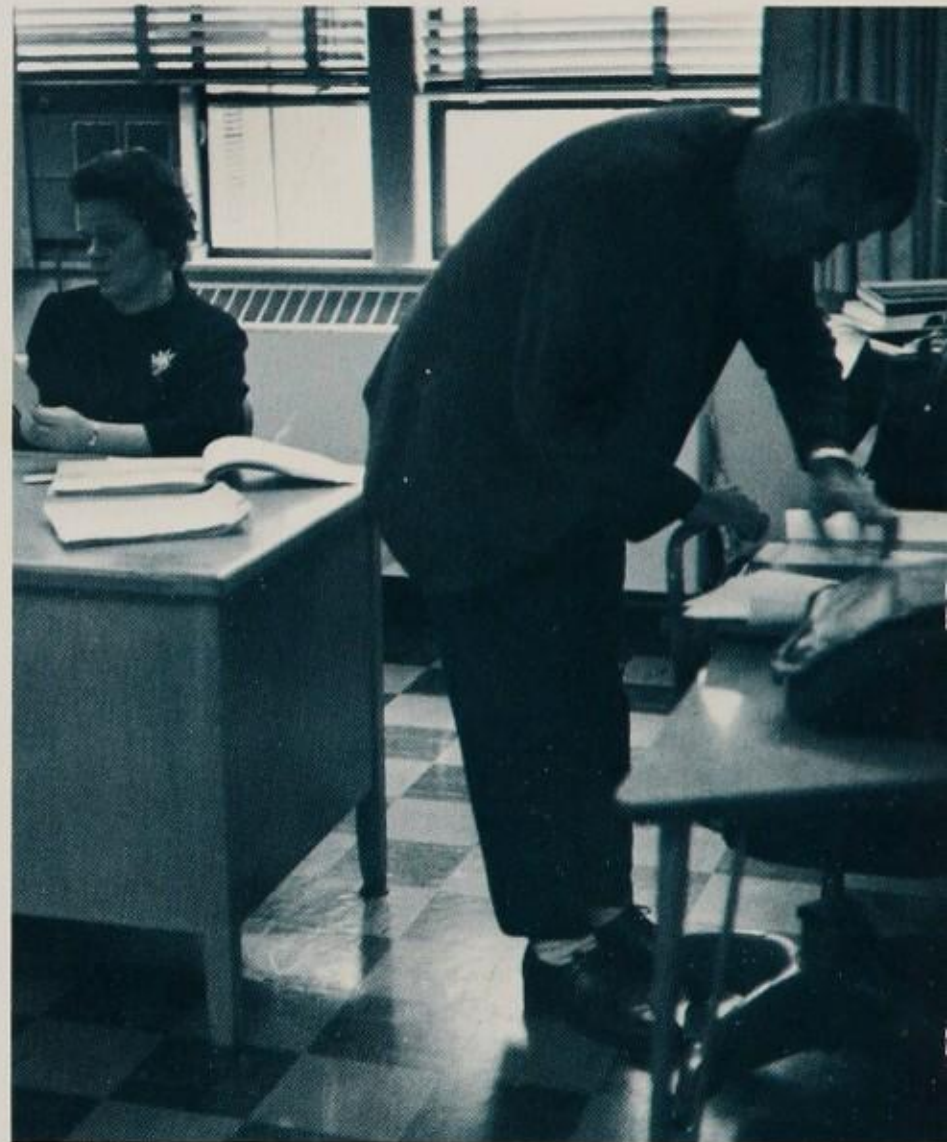

B. D. Middleton
Administration and Faculty Supplies
 a Guiding Hand

Superintendent B. D. Middleton provides the leadership necessary in providing a productive school system. He is the key person in our administration.

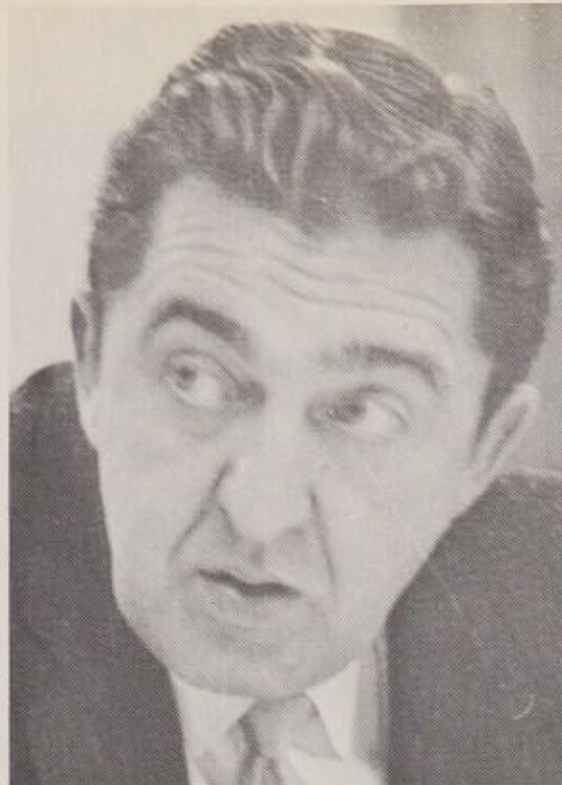

Mr. Middleton was elected chairman of the State Legislative Committee of the Illinois Education Association in December. Before being elected to this position Mr. Middleton served 14 years as a member at the divisional level of the I.E.A.

Assistant Principal Wayne B. Challacombe, helps Mr. Middleton in producing the leadership needed at Columbia High School. Mr. Challacombe keeps a daily record of the student attendance and fills the position of Student Council sponsor.

The Board of Education of Columbia Unit #4 High School works together to insure that the educational needs of the students at C.H.S. are met and that the standards set for the school also meet the standards set by the North Central Accrediting Association.

The members of the 1966-67 school board are: Harold Harres, president; John Gummersheimer, secretary; George Riebeling, Maurice Scheider, Phil Eckert, Milton Kleinschmidt and William Wohlwend.

Vivian Rogers
Librarian
B.A. Ed. at Hardin College

Students Take Advantage of the New Library Facilities

The library of CHS is furnished with over 29,000 books, current newspapers every day, and an assortment of weekly and monthly magazines and references of all types. Miss Vivian Rogers, school librarian, organizes the library into a valuable source for research, study, and reading pleasure.

The books are ordered from Illinois Reading Service and McClurg. During the year, a book survey was filled out by the high school asking for a student's favorite book. Miss Rogers plans to expand the library with some of these books.

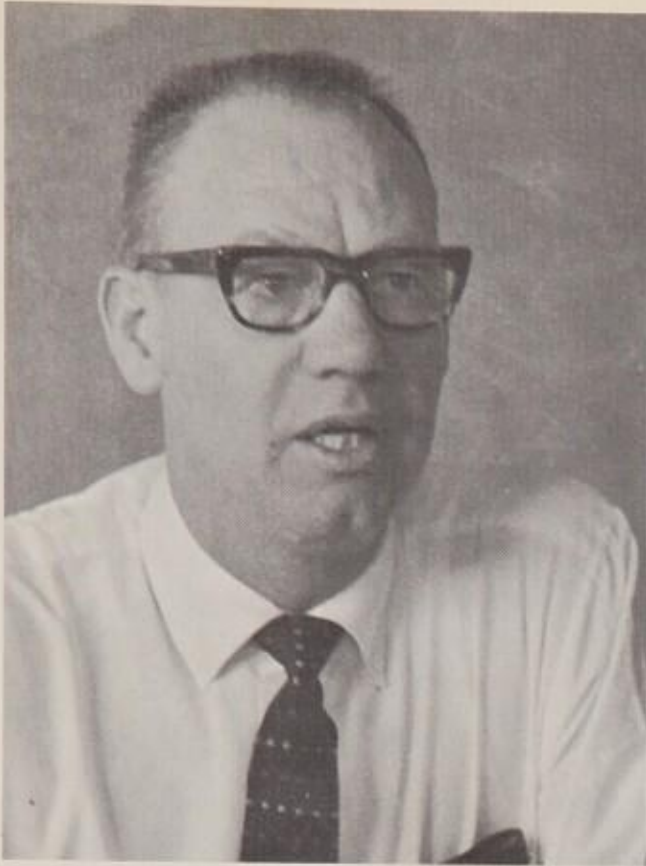

Florence Jaenke
Business Education
M.A. at University of Illinois

Commerce Department Provides Clerical Vocation and Training

The Commerce Department offers a wide range of business courses. Typing, shorthand I and II, bookkeeping and office practice aid students who wish to apply for jobs after graduation. Students who plan to go to college are also benefited by these courses. Mrs. Jaenke instructs all of the courses except bookkeeping, taught by Mrs. Karen White.

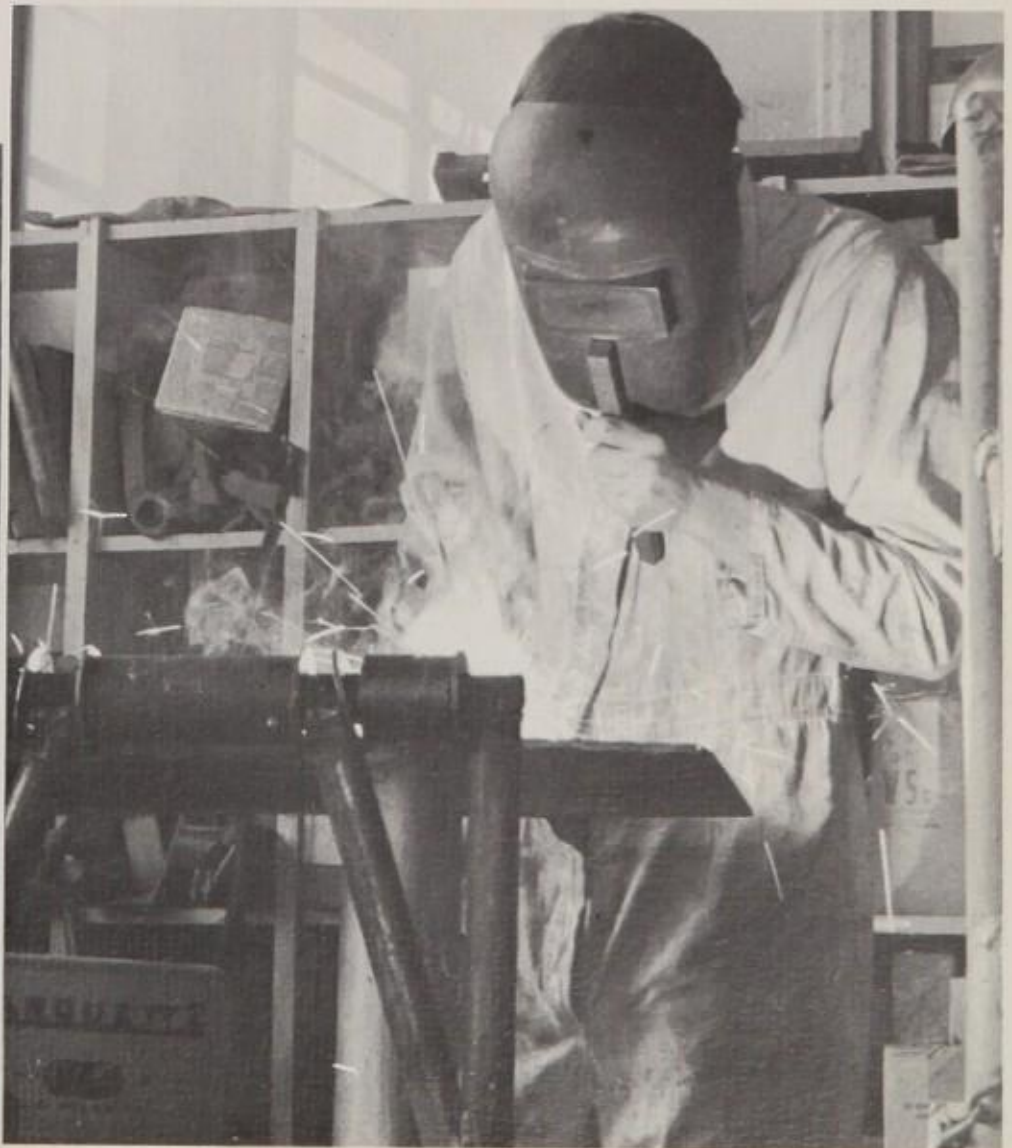

Walter Monke
Agriculture
M.S. Ed. at University of Illinois

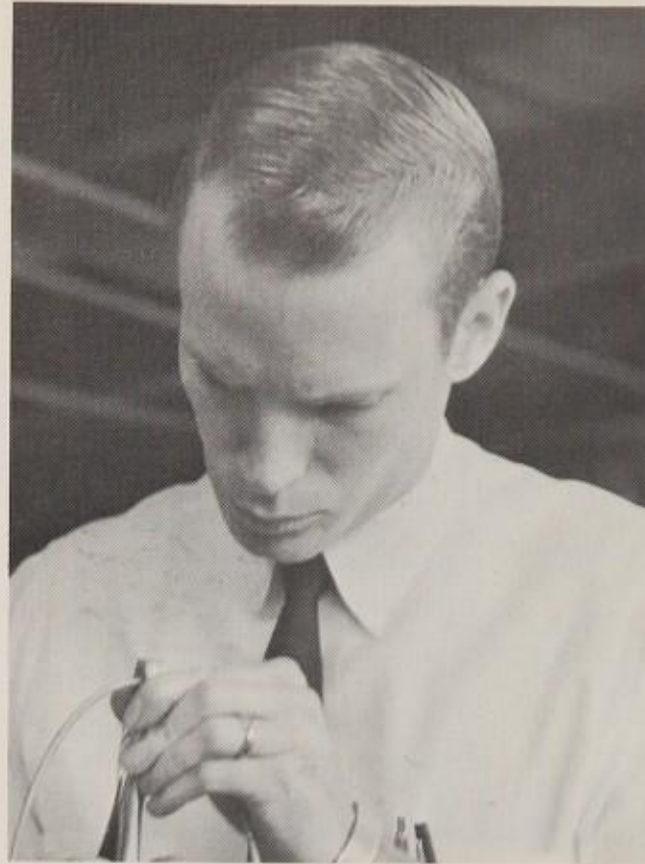

The Agriculture courses are taught by Walter Monke. The classes include such courses as animal science, soil and plant science, agricultural business management, agricultural machinery, agricultural science, soil and water conservation, agricultural building and agricultural mechanics. These courses are popular among students who plan to work in some phases of farming.

Industrial Arts Strengthens Vocation

Wayne Challacombe and Vaughn Johnson conduct the Industrial Arts Department at Columbia High School.

Mr. Johnson instructs wood work, metal work, and power mechanics to all freshmen and sophomore students. Mr. Challacombe teaches metal and electricity to junior and senior students. All the students can benefit by working in classroom as well as project work.

The Home Economics classes are concerned with all things that affect home life. Both home projects and class projects are utilized by Miss Carolyn Houser, who instructs Home Economics I, II, and III. Students receive instruction in such areas as child care, sewing, good preparation, and home decorating, in order that the students may become active in home and community life.

The Foreign Language Department Features a New Class This Year

The Foreign Language Department was expanded this year. Kenneth Barger instructs Latin I, II, III, IV, and also French I, II, and III. William Shannon instructs German I and II, an additional course.

A foreign language can help students become familiar with other civilizations and cultures. Students learn basic language principles as well as the universality of languages.

*Lots of luck
Paul Snider*

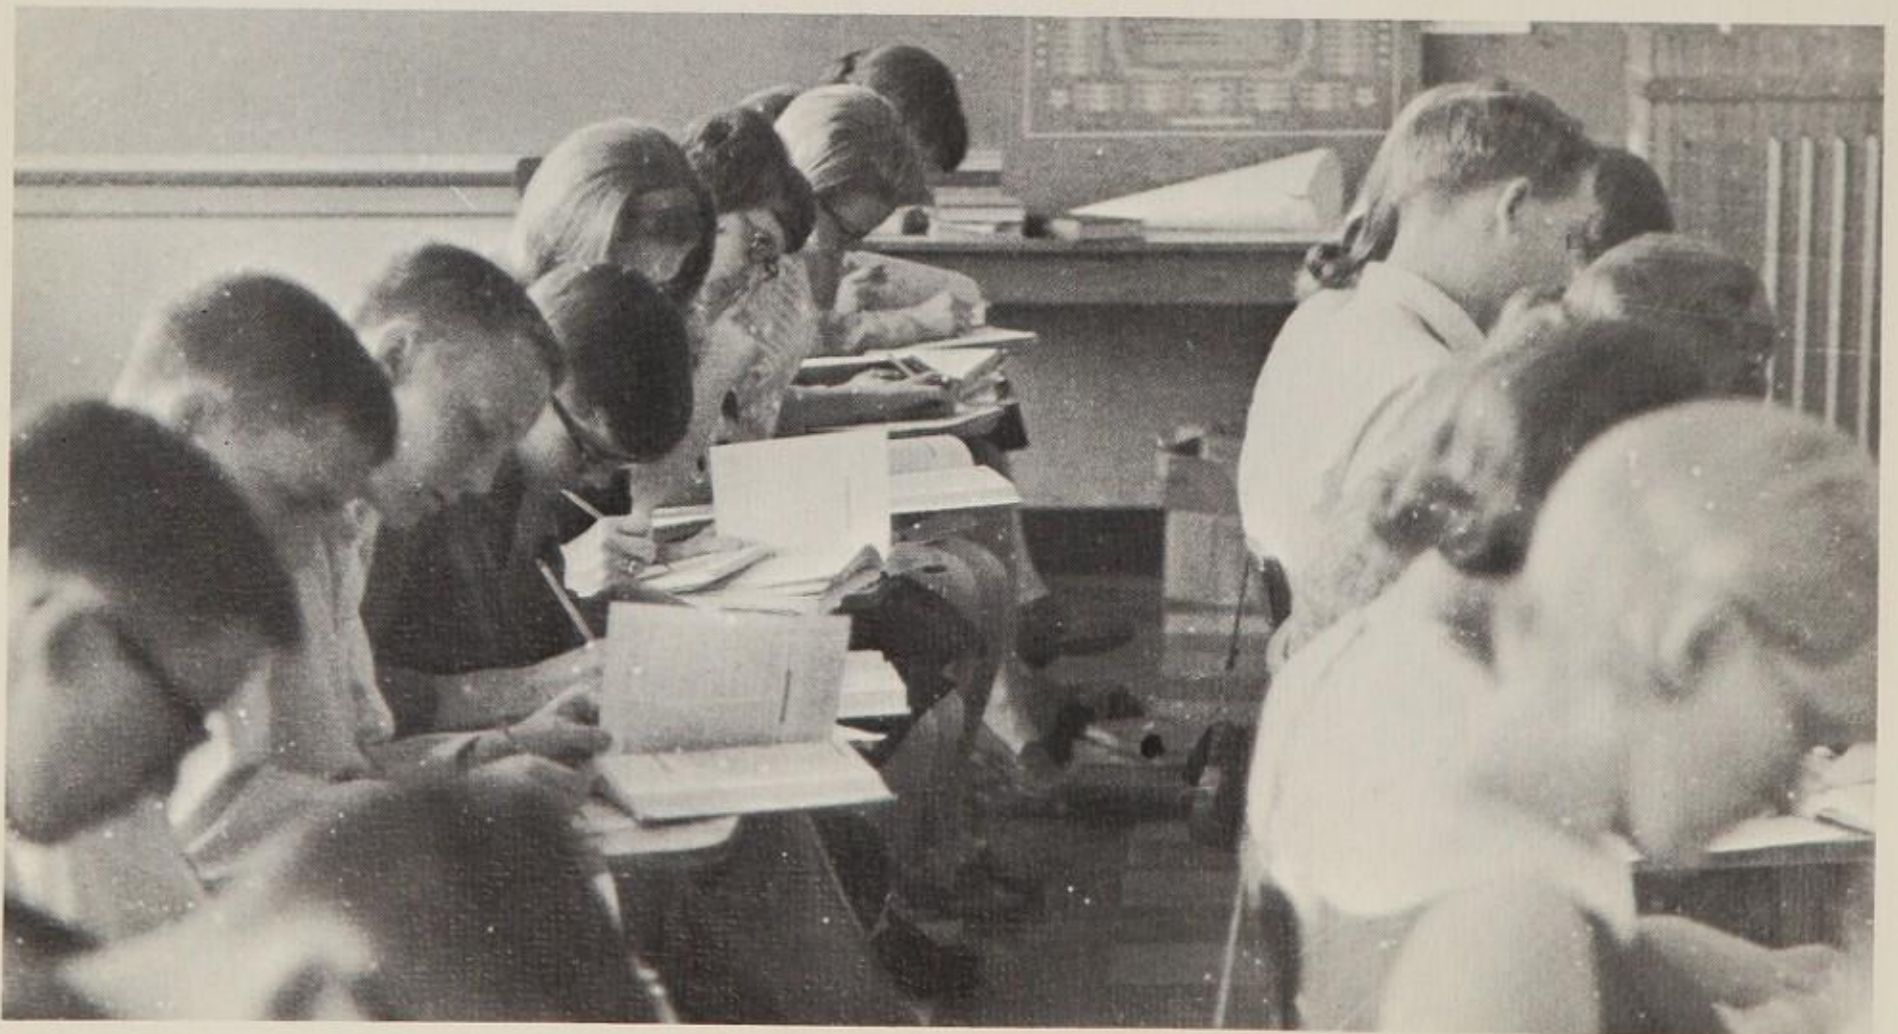

Paul Snider teaches American History and Drivers Education at CHS. The course in American History is a required subject for all junior students. In American History students can learn the social problems of the past as well as the present.

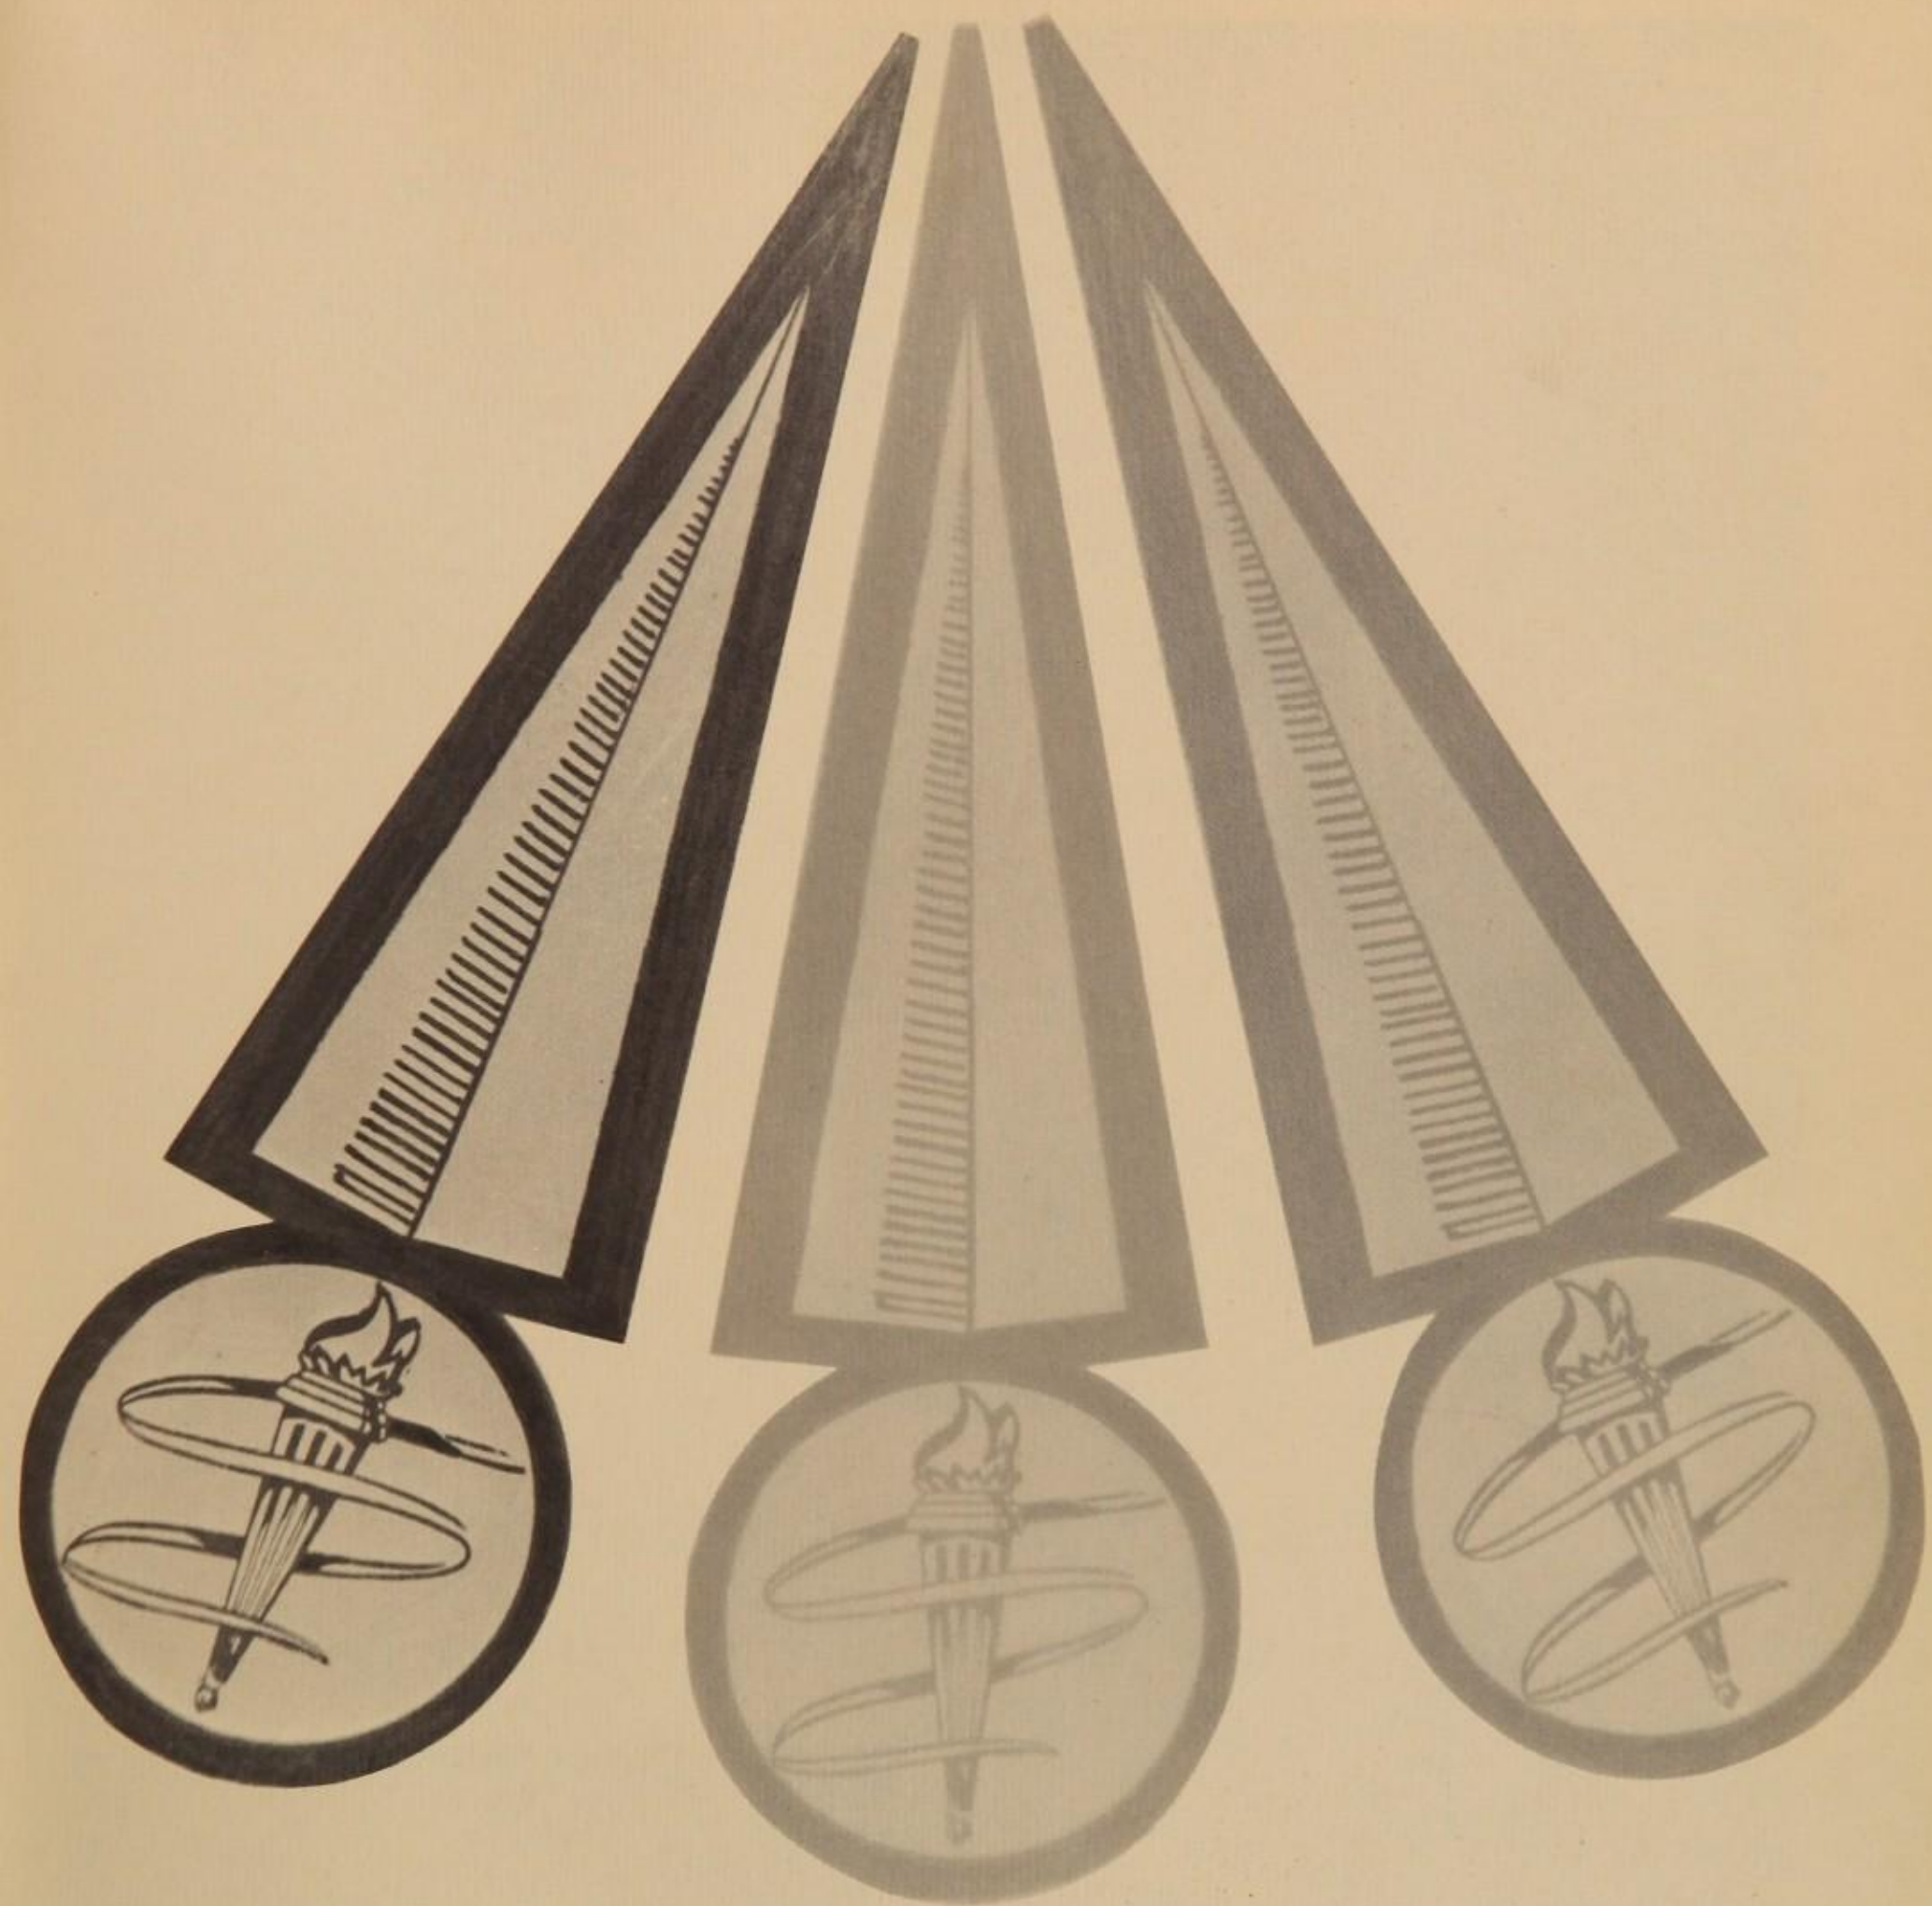

Drivers' Training is becoming more and more popular every year. In this course, the students learn and develop basic skills of driving.

Vernon Smith instructs Economics and William Shannon instructs World History.

HONORS

Gary Roediger received the Valedictorian Medal on May 17, at Awards Night. Gary received this award for having the highest scholastic average of the 1967 graduating class.

Gary has been an active member of various clubs during his four years of high school. He has been a letterman of baseball and basketball.

Gary Roediger Received the Valedictory Award

Four Language Students Receive French, Latin and German Awards

The German Award was presented to Carol Jean Faust. This is the first year that the German department has made such an award. Carol has maintained the highest average out of all her fellow students.

Sandy Roediger and Judy Purcell were the recipients of the French Awards. Both Sandy and Judy are three year members of the French Department.

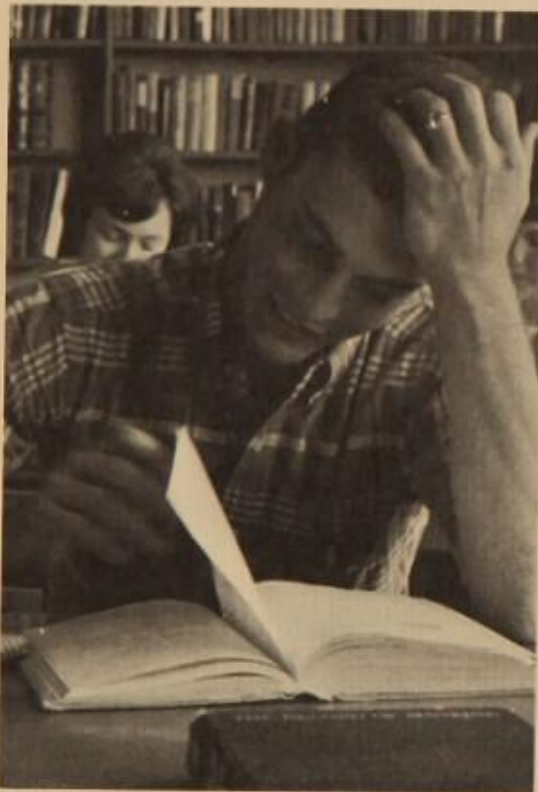

The Latin Award was awarded to Darlene Steiger. Darlene has been a Latin student for four years. During those four years Darlene kept the highest average of all the Latin students.

Each year a student receives recognition for his efforts through the Awards Night. On May 17, special credit was awarded to Gary Roediger for a job well-done. Gary was selected to receive the Math Award by Miss Dian Dill. To qualify for this award, a student must have passed four years of mathematics and obtained the highest scholastic average in that particular field.

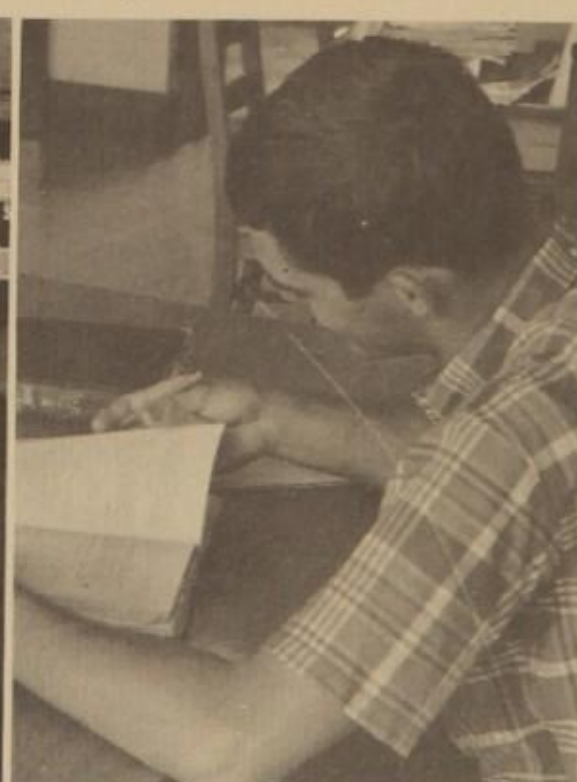

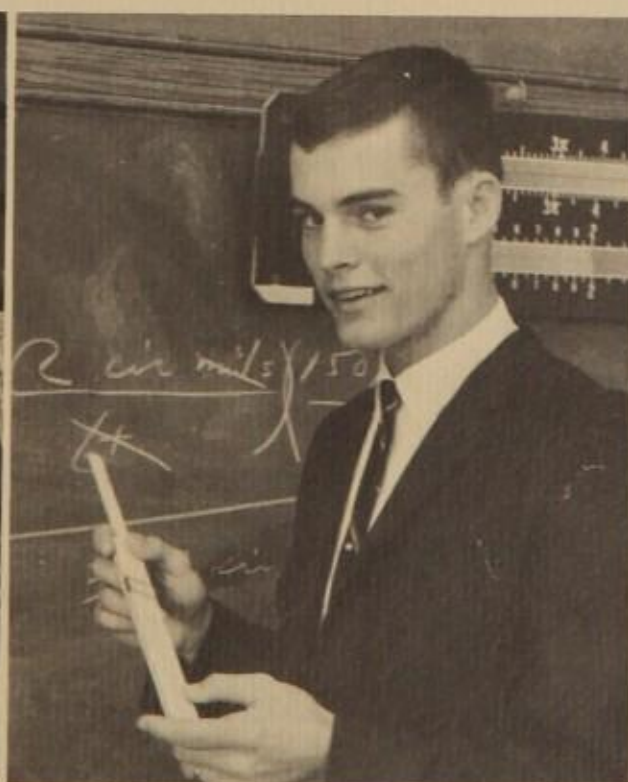

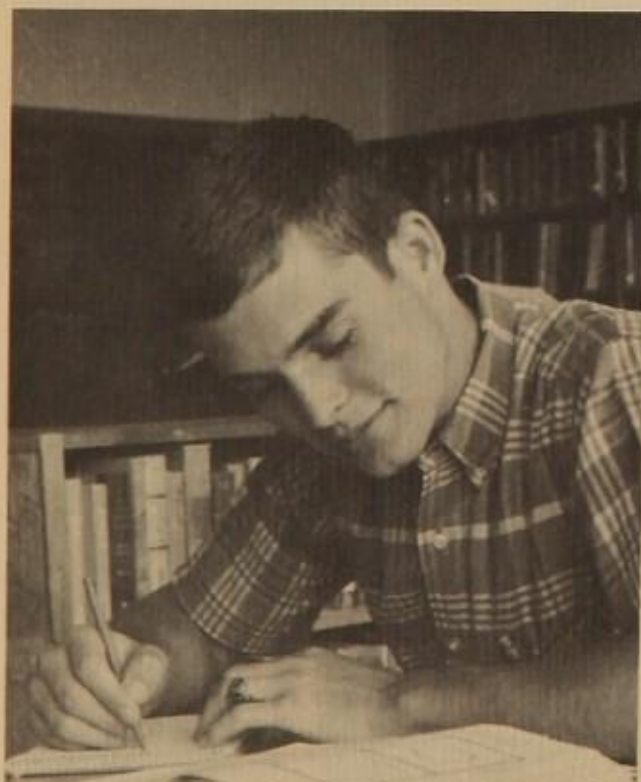

Gary Roediger Wins Award for 4 Year Top Average

Mr. Bassy had the honor of presenting Gary Roediger with the Science Award. After completing four years of science, Gary was the highest ranking science student of all his classmates. Gary found that to complete his goal, one course of science would not be sufficient in his senior year. Diligent study was required to make outstanding grades in both his organic and physics classes.

Gary Roediger Receives Award for Highest Science Average

Bonnie Haney accepts the Crisco Award from Miss Carolyn Houser as the outstanding student in the study of homemaking. Bonnie's name will be placed on a plaque, which will be displayed in the trophy case. Bonnie was judged on the suit she is wearing.

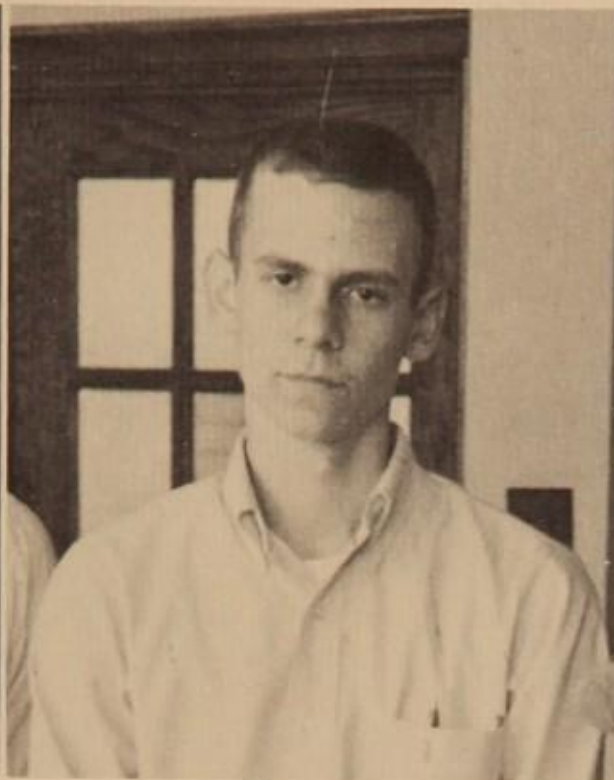

Harold Janson was awarded the DeKalb Award by Walter Monke, agriculture teacher. Harold also received a certificate for his outstanding work.

Three Students Receive Awards Through Vocational Training

Lucy Daab, senior, accepts the Betty Crocker Award with great pleasure and honor.

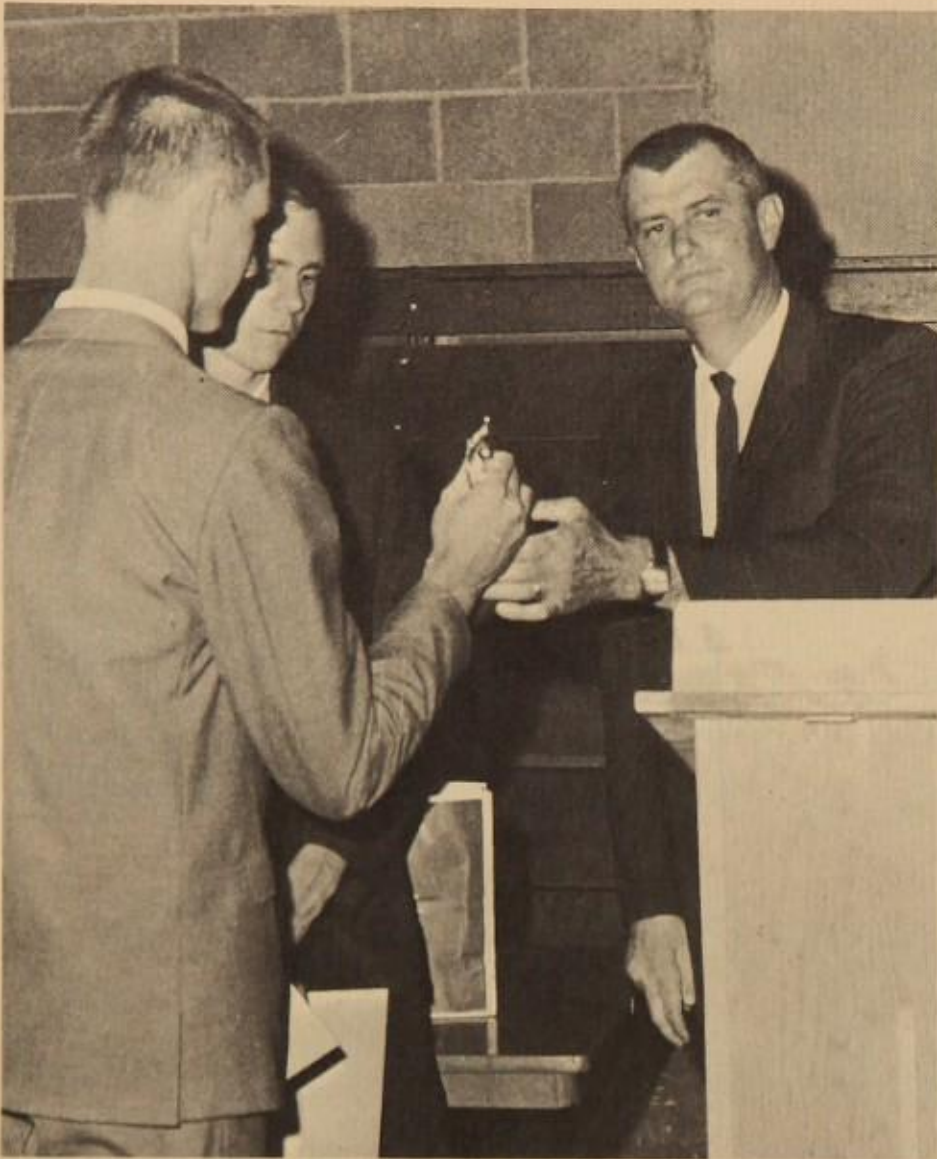

Tom Jehling Presented with the John Philip Sousa Award

The band members selected Tom Jehling as the recipient of the John Philip Sousa Award.

Tom has been an active member in band during his four years of high school. He has been a member of stage band and pit band for the musical. Tom is the ninth person to receive this special award.

Uhl O. Sackman is shown presenting Tom with the medal. Tom's name will also be placed on a plaque which will be kept in the trophy case.

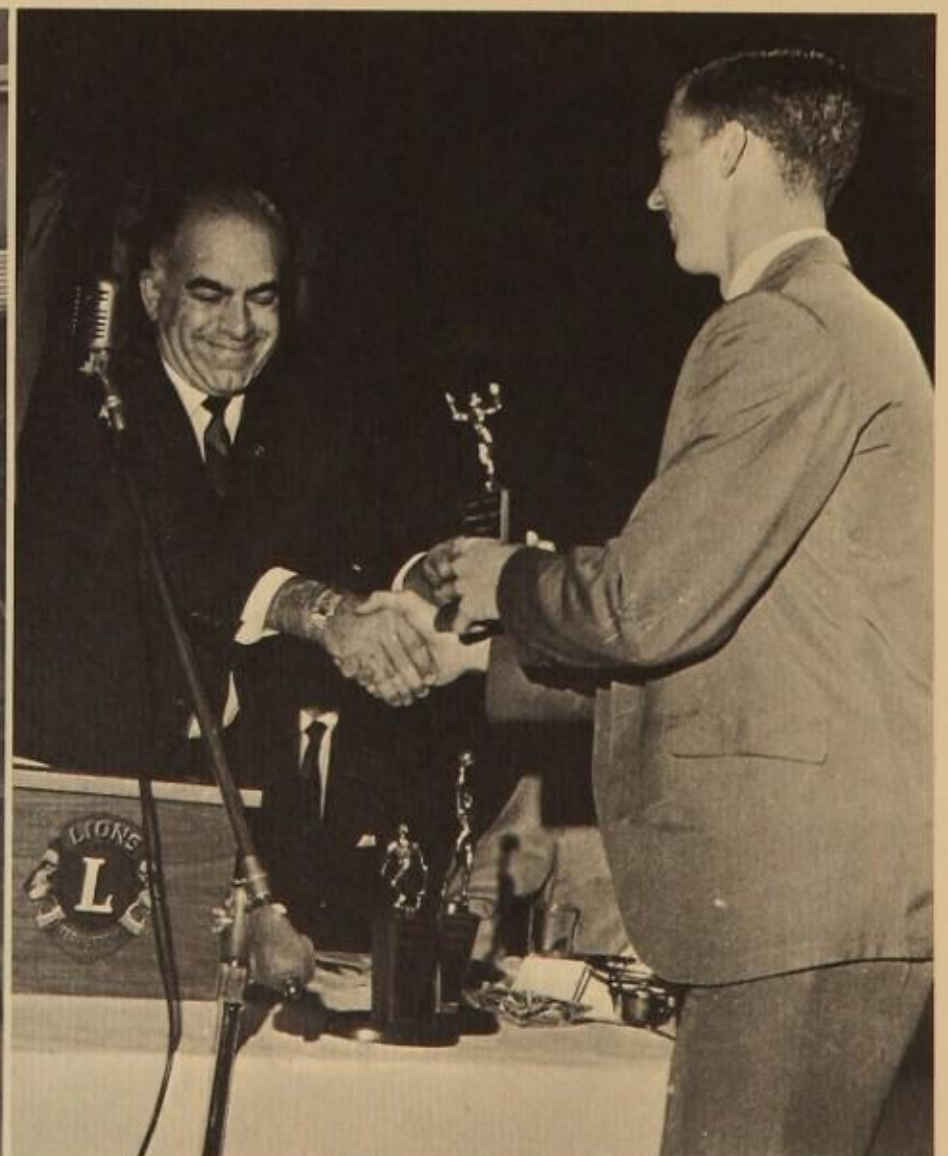

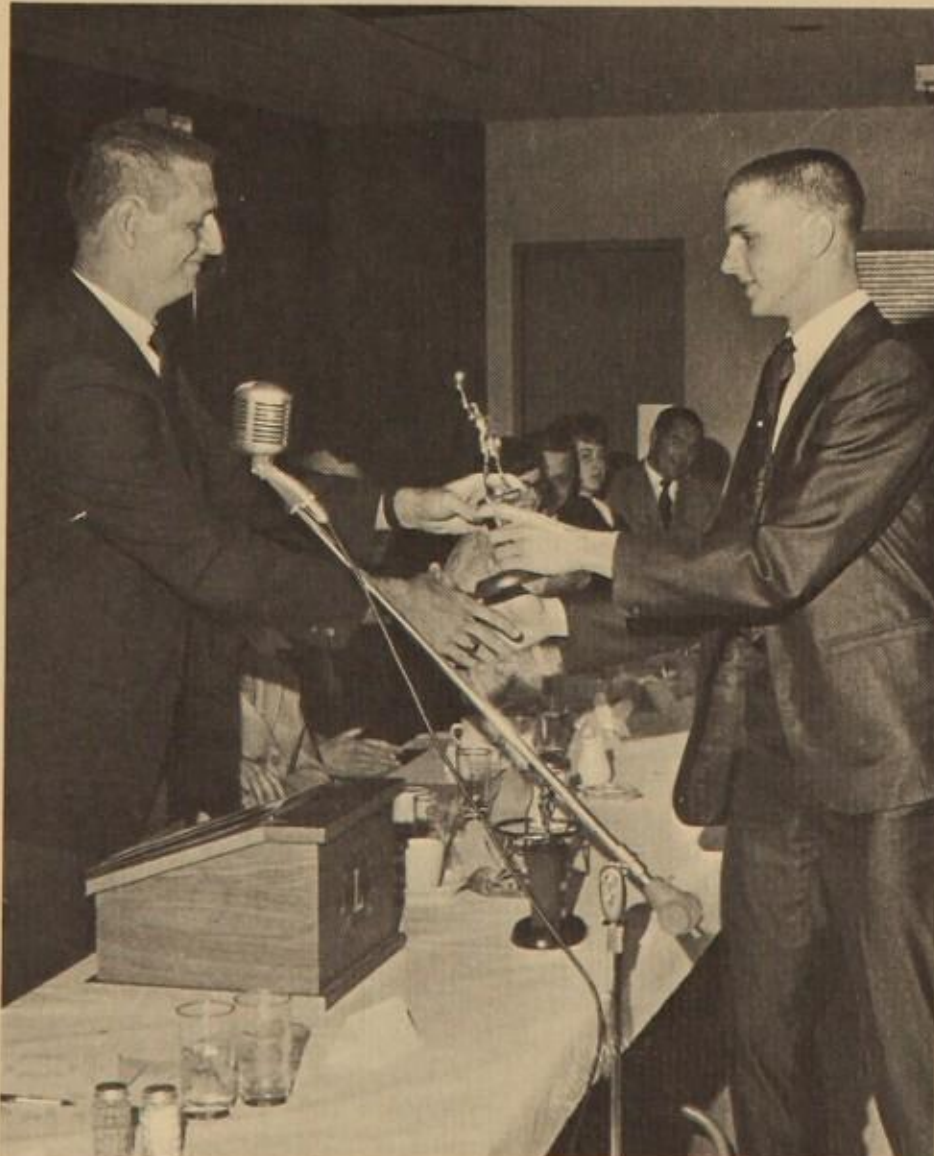

Jim Kremmel was selected by the Varsity baseball team as the most valuable player.

Danny Radison was chosen to receive the award as the most outstanding basketball player.

Steve Harres was awarded the track-cross country medal.

Athletes Receive Awards for Outstanding Ability

Loyal Baseball and Basketball Fans Honored with Four Special Awards

Barbara Jehling, freshman; Pat Garris, junior; and Mary Lou Alderson, senior; were the three recipients of the spirit sticks. This was the first year that such awards for school spirit were presented.

The Varsity cheerleaders chose these girls for showing the most spirit during the basketball season. The presenting of such an award was suggested at the I.S.U. Cheerleading Camp that the Varsity Cheerleaders attended the preceding summer.

The Most Loyal Baseball Fan Award was presented to Barbara Jehling. Barbara was selected by the Varsity players for showing the most enthusiasm at the varsity baseball games throughout the fall and spring season. Barbara was presented with a baseball autographed by all the baseball players.

Senior attendant, Carol Hert, and Junior attendants, Susan Curry and Becky Habermehl were members of Queen Judy's royal court.

Judy Beiermann Crowned New Basketball Queen

Judy Beiermann, an active member of GAA and FHA was crowned the 1966-1967 Basketball Queen by George Horsley, Student Council president. Queen Judy was escorted by Jim Kremmel. The retiring Queen was Susan Volkert.

Freshman attendant, JoAnn Diehl and Sophomore Pat Hannon added charm to the grand occasion.

Shirley Bergmann and Cheri Breihan were the senior attendants in Norma's royal court.

Norma Rehg Crowned for 1966-67 Sno-Queen

Norma Rehg, a senior, was named the Sno-Queen on January 28, 1967. She was crowned by the retiring queen, Carole Schlemmer. Norma is an active member of the Girls Athletic Association. She has been a member of the organization for four years and a representative for her class for two years. Norma was escorted by Lawrence Patterson.

Retiring Queen, Carole Schlemmer, was escorted to the throne by Glenn Meyers.

Patricia Garris and Cheryl Sackman were the junior attendants. They will serve as senior attendants next year.

Kathy Boyd was escorted by Steve Harres.

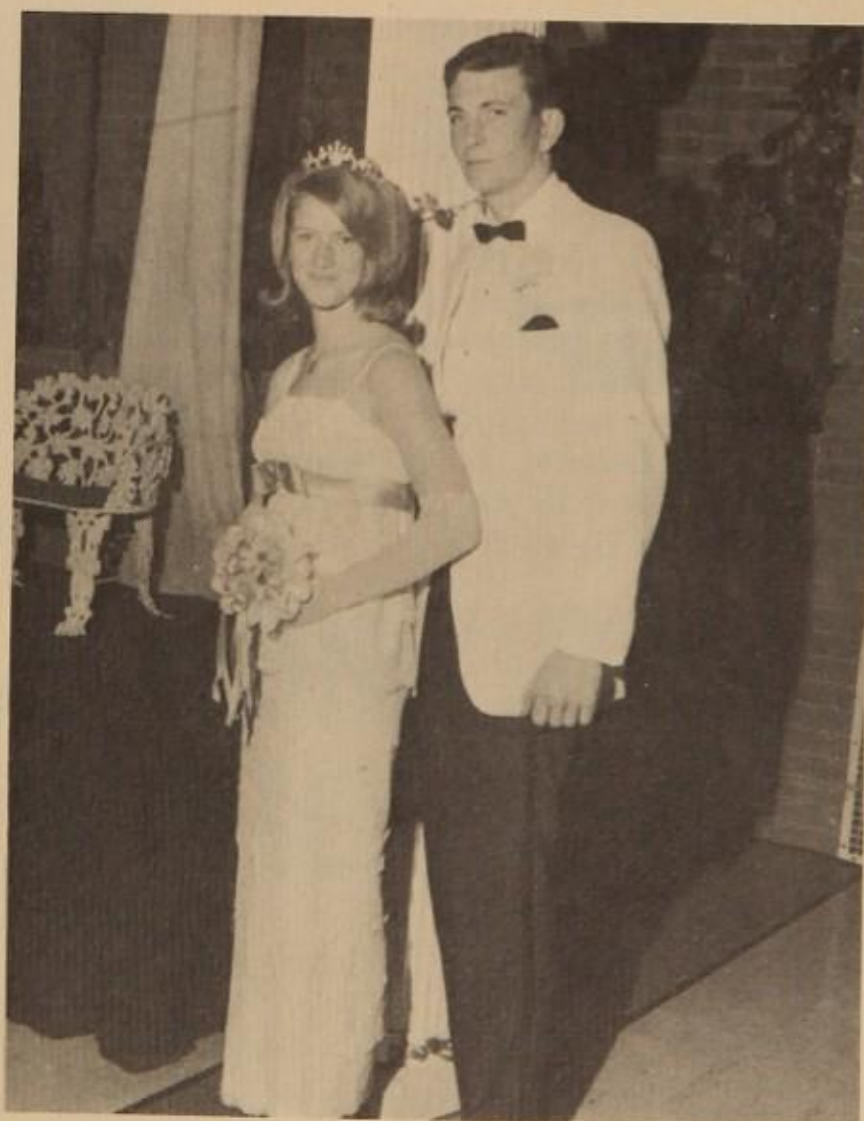

Sandy Roediger was escorted by Denny Diehl.

Franny Bennor Selected As 1967-68 Prom Queen

Retiring Queen, Judy Stumpf escorted by Larry Siford, surrendered her throne and crown to Franny Bennor, the 1967-68 Prom Queen.

Franny's moment of supreme happiness arrived when she was crowned queen by Danny Radison, junior class president. Sharing her joy and excitement was her escort, Ron Esary.

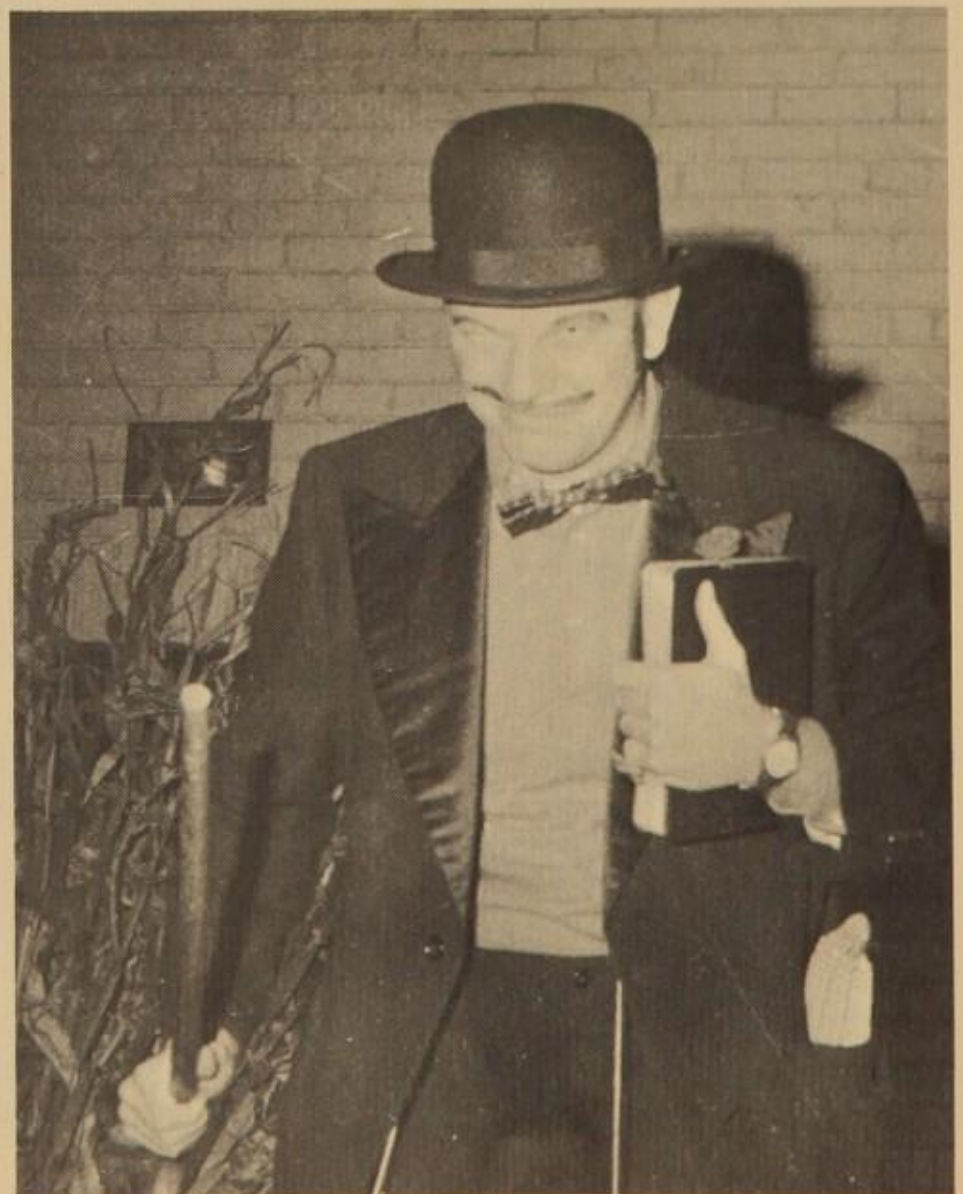

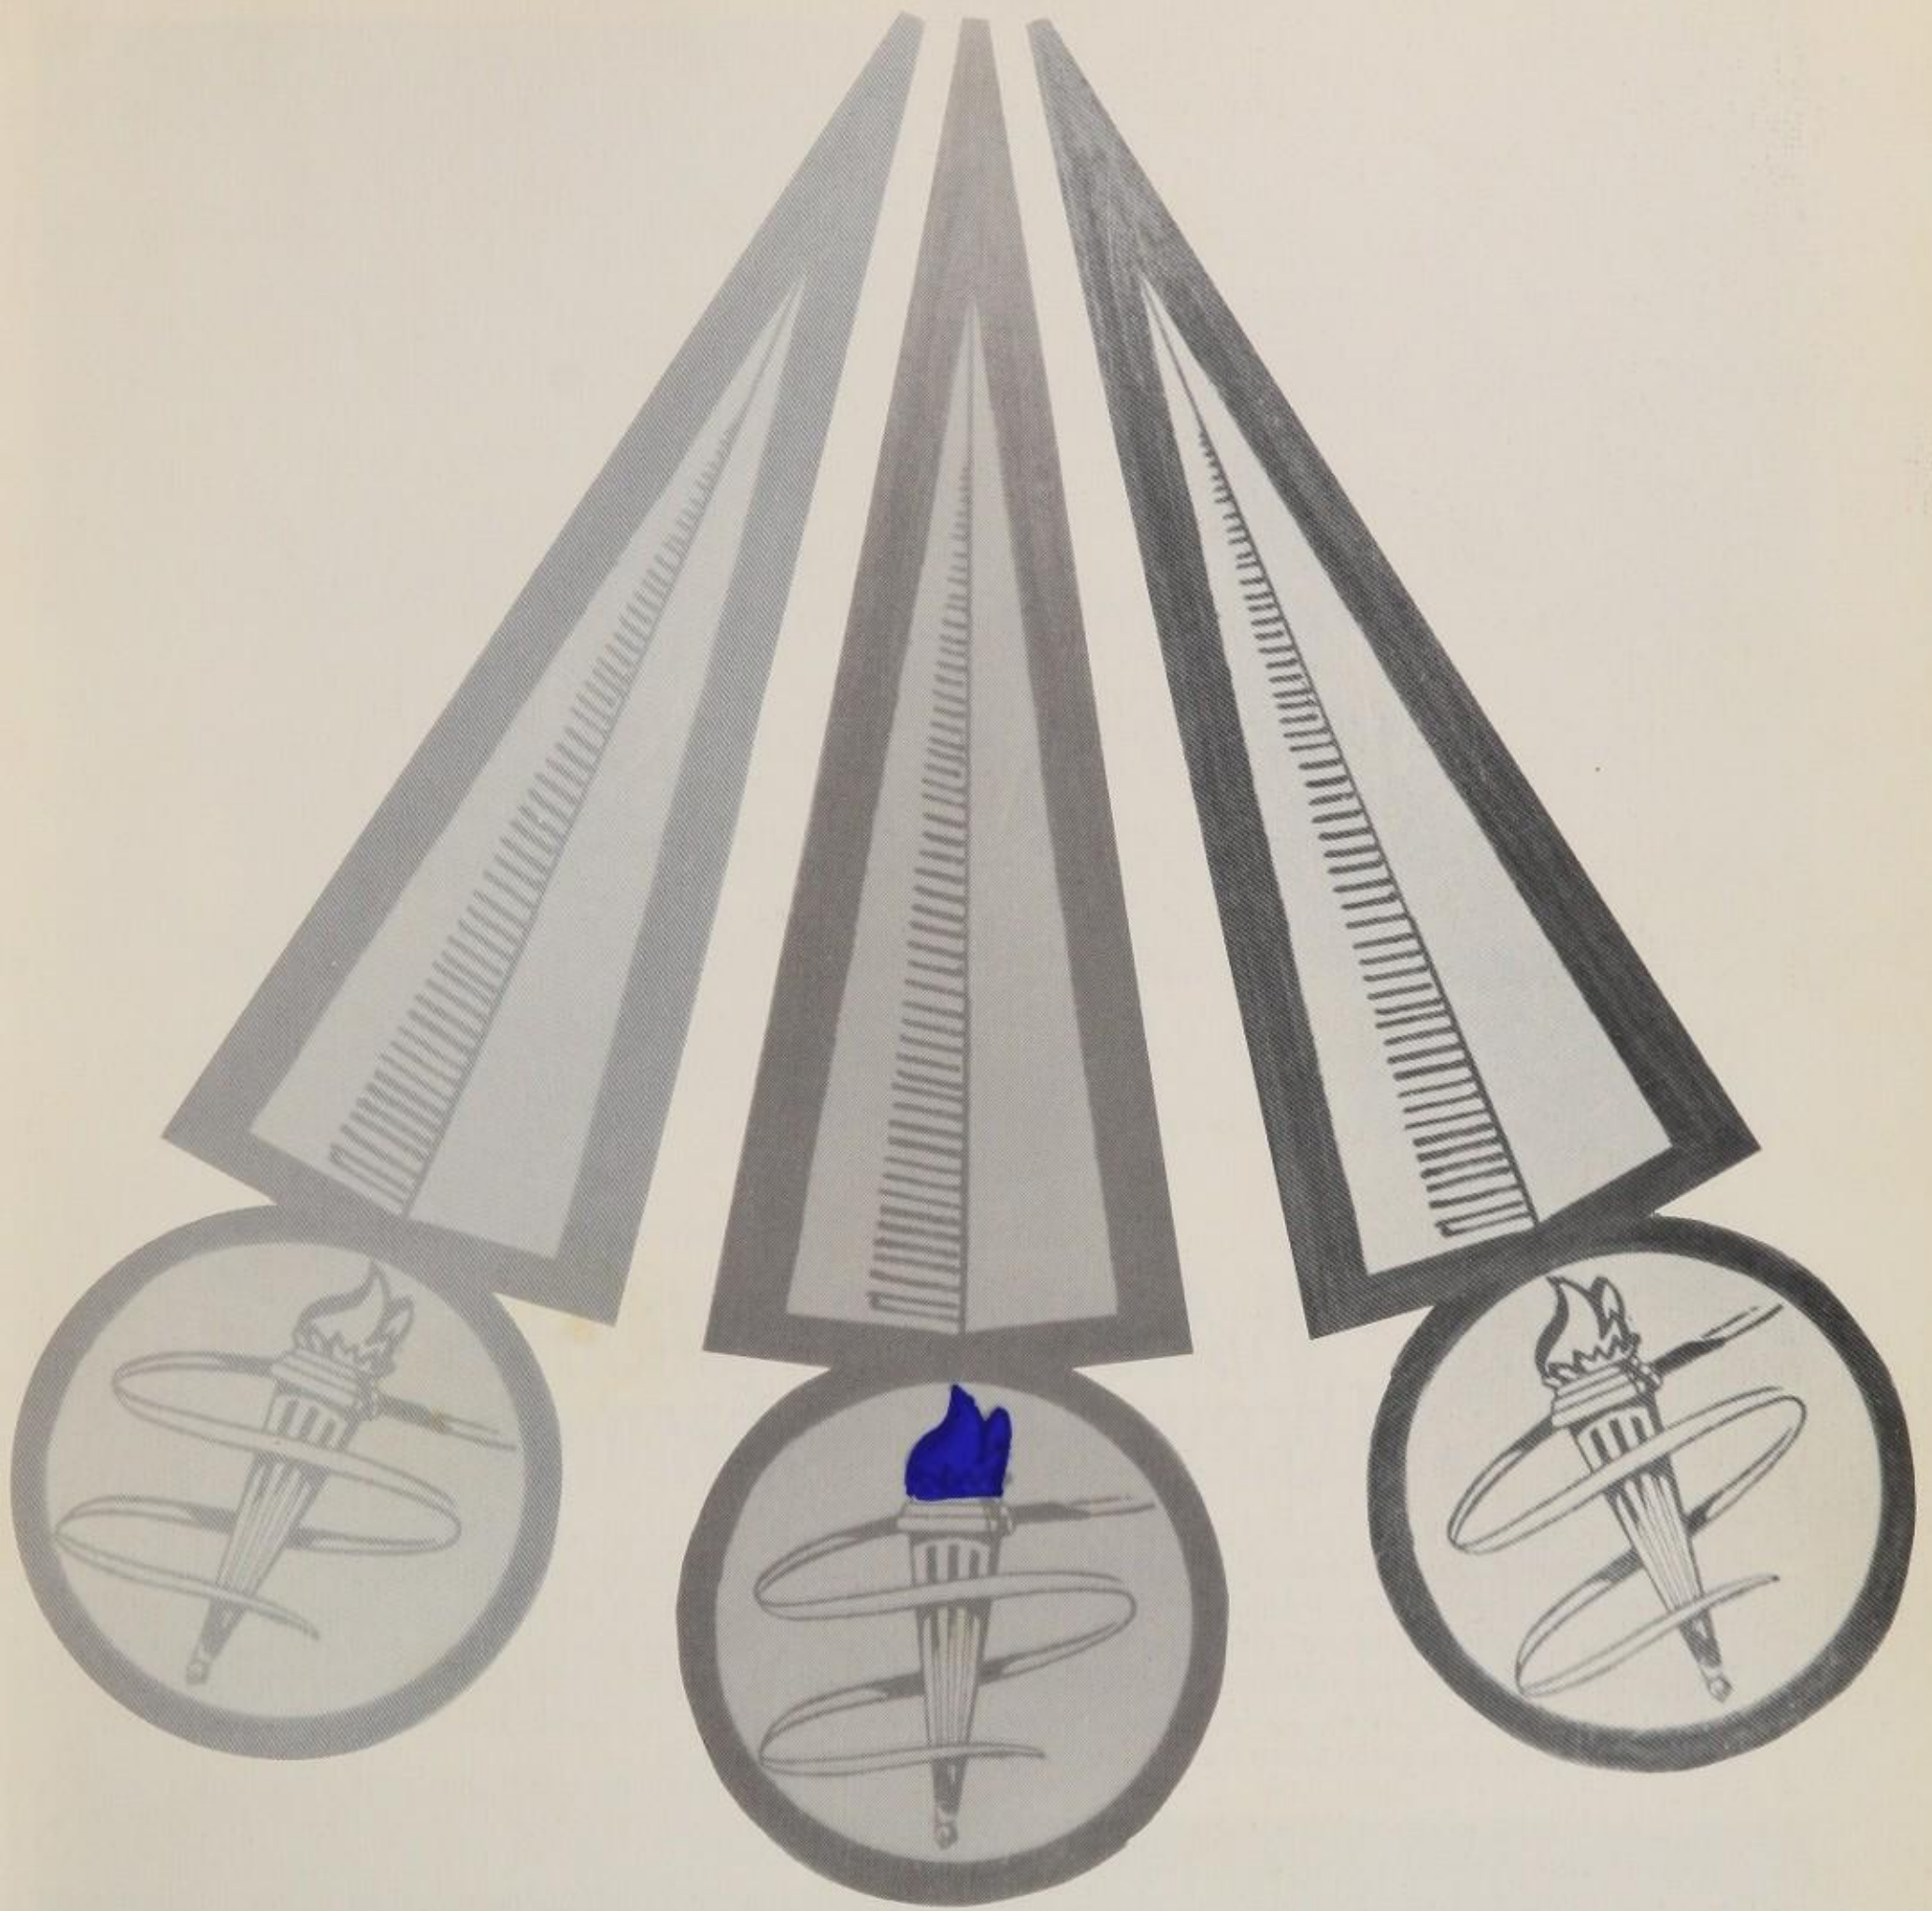

Eugene Helfrich and Mary Schmidt were crowned King and Queen of the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Li'l Abners and Daisy Maes Dance to Music of the Tories

The Sadie Hawkins Dance is an event that is held annually at CHS. It is given by a different organization or class each year. The Sophomore class sponsored this year's 1966-67 Sadie Hawkins Dance. The fellows dressed up in their blue jeans to resemble Li'l Abner for the big event, and the girls dressed up like Daisey Mae.

Upon their arrival they were greeted by a friendly "ole" chap known as Marrin' Sam, Paul Snider. Music was provided for dancing by the Tories.

ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Future Homemakers Strive "Toward New Horizons"

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls enrolled or previously enrolled in home-making. The over-all goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family and community living now and in the future. One of the special activities of the Columbia chapter for the past year was the "big brother" project. The school newspaper and newsletters were sent regularly to former CHS students who are serving their country. Kathy Stumpf served as president; Cheryl Sackmann, vice president; Cheryl Mueller, treasurer; and Sandy Roediger, secretary.

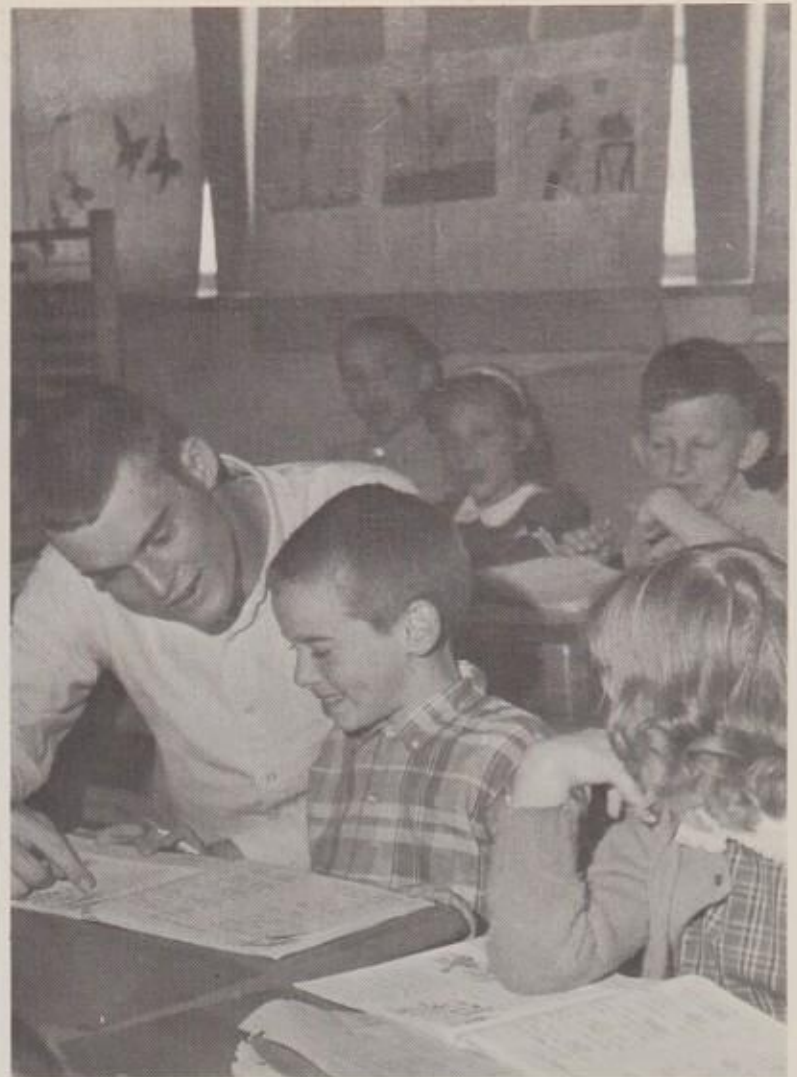

Self-Assurance Inspired Through Future Farmers

The Future Farmers of America, or FFA as it is commonly known is a national organization of, by, and for boys studying vocational agriculture in high school. It is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum, vocational agriculture. Members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility. The FFA is 100% American in its ideals and outlook. The organization was led by president, Bill Smith; vice president, Bob Schlemmer; treasurer, Barry Riddle and secretary, Austin Campbell.

Future Teachers Gain Experience

The Future Teachers of America has played an important part in introducing the field of teaching to those high school students interested in making teaching their future profession. Officers of the club are Kathy Stumpf, secretary; Bob Strong, treasurer; Gary Roediger, president and Dan Radison, vice president.

Cadet teacher, Gary Roediger, gained experience under the guidance of the classroom teacher.

National Honor Society Establishes High Standards

Perhaps the most select group at CHS is the National Honor Society which has gained the respect and admiration of the student body and faculty. Main requisites for membership in the organization are high scholastic standing, leadership, dependability, integrity, a pleasing personality, and the ability to work with people. The organization is under the leadership of its officers, Gary Roediger, vice president; Tom Jehling, president; Carol Hert, secretary and Sandy Roediger, treasurer.

GAA Offers Girls Many Opportunities

Girls interested in the field of athletics are given the opportunity to develop emotionally, socially, physically, and morally through the Girls' Athletic Association. The girls participate in different activities during the year such as Mother's Night, Daddy Date Night, Co-ed Night, and regular play nights. The members of GAA sponsor the annual Sno Queen Dance.

Officers: President Kathy Herbeck, Vice President Pat Garis, Secretary Judy Stumpf, and Treasurer Lucy Daab.

Pep Club Is Aid to School Spirit

Pep Club is an organization to promote school spirit at all the sports activities of the school. The officers are Pat Schneider, president, Louise Barker, vice president, Cheryl Riebeling, secretary, and Judy Frierdich, treasurer.

Officers are Dan Radison, president; Kurt Herbst, vice president; Cheryl Riebeling, secretary.

Foreign Language Spreads Culture

The Foreign Language Club strives to give its members an understanding of the cultures of foreign countries. The classes of the Foreign Language Department rotate in the planning of the programs. These programs include movies on France, oral reports done for class projects, and questionnaires about the foreign languages.

Deutcher Verein Highly Successful First Year

The purpose of the German Club is to develop the interest of the students in the cultural aspects and history of the German language. The club is under the leadership of three chairmen, Judy Frierdich, Kathy Boyd, and Bob Strong.

333 Members in Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross with over 300 members is the largest organization at CHS. Each student of the school is a member of this club. They are represented by twenty students forming a council, who carry out the projects. Officers of the club are President David Burks, Vice President Louise Barker, and Secretary Scott Smith.

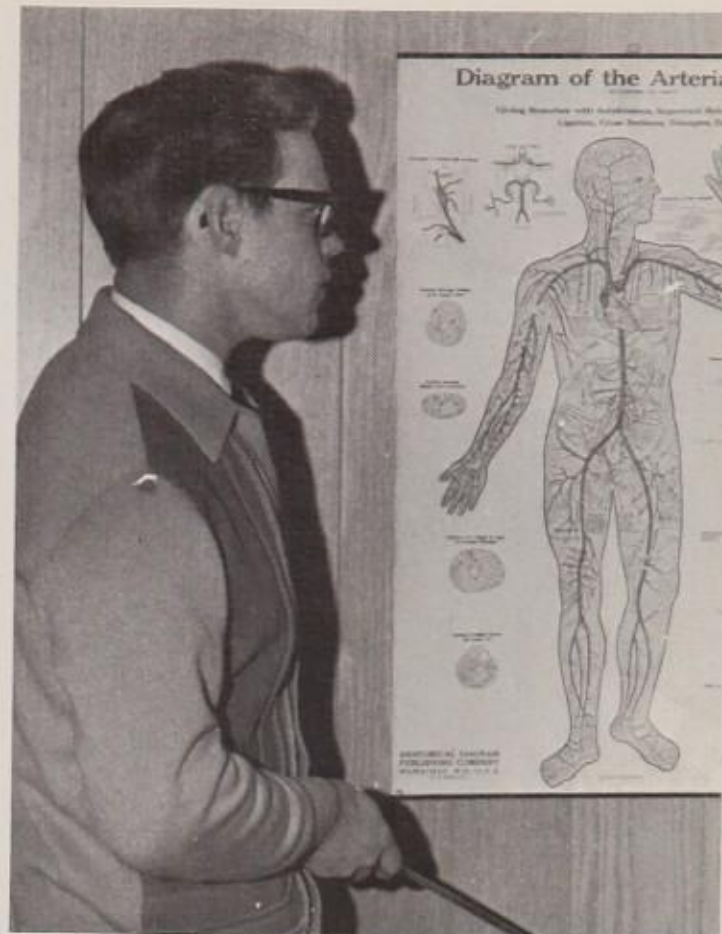

Student Council Doubles Size with Constitutional Amendment

The primary function of the Student Council is to provide a learning experience in basic governmental processes. Its principal contribution to education is the development of good citizenship which is one of the cardinal objectives of the school. It also tries to provide within the school a climate conducive to the intellectual, physical, social, and moral development of each student. There are four representatives from each class and the President of the Student Council is George Horsley.

Math and Science Club Begins Initial Year

The Math and Science Club was initiated this year to arouse interest in the fields related to mathematics and science. It offers enrichment of the study outside the classroom and allows the students to put into practice the things they learn. Leadership duties of the organization were entrusted to Jim Kremmel, president; Gary Roediger, vice president; and Darlene Steiger, secretary.

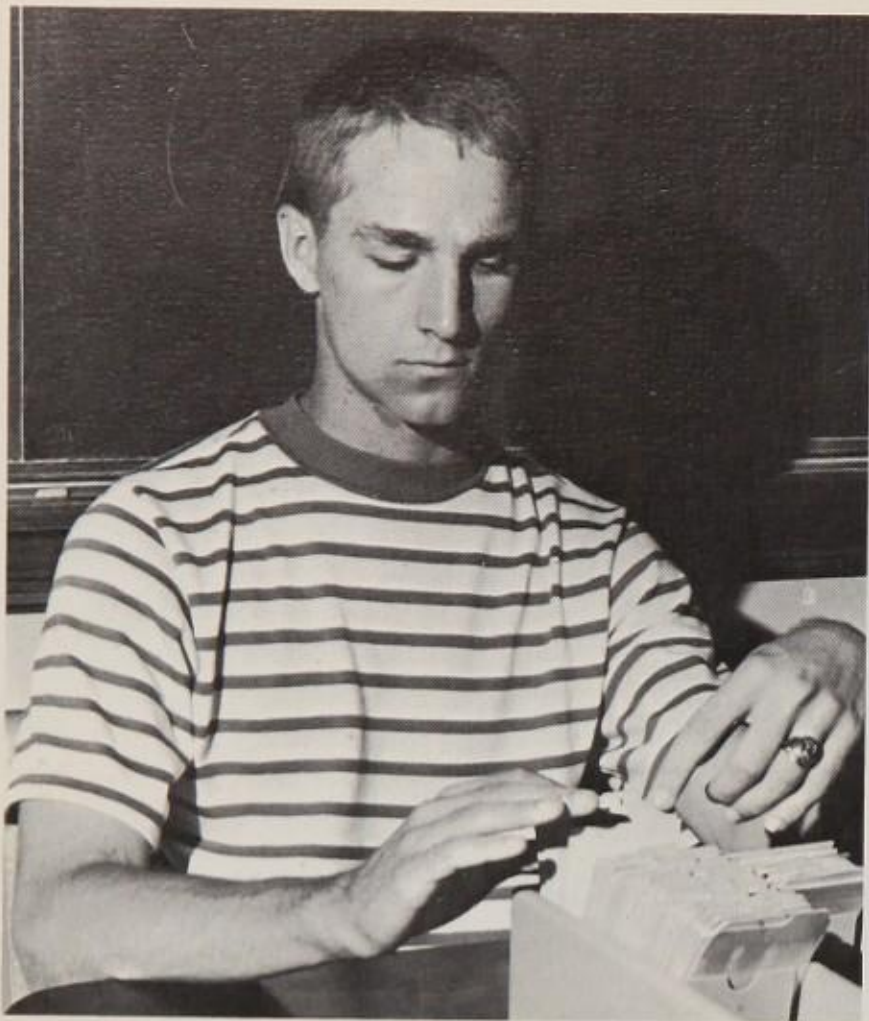

The process of embalming was explained to the club during a field trip to the Myer's Funeral Home.

Visual Aids Made Possible by Work of Projector Club

Members of the Projection Club are students who give of their free hours to operate the movie projector for the classroom teachers. Emilio Bassy was in charge of the club and assisted the students when help was needed.

Students Benefit from Work of Library Club

Members of the Library Club aid the club sponsor, Vivian Rogers, in helping students find and check out books. It is also the duty of the staff to maintain a bulletin board display for the library and to assist in other small jobs needed to be done.

Jim Kremmel presided over the meetings of the Library Club.

Greeter Staff Performs Duties To Assist Office and Teachers

The Greeter Club, in addition to checking attendance, assisted teachers and office personnel in performing non-teaching duties. Members of the club are required to earn a 4.0 average throughout the year.

Joan Krebel checks with each classroom teacher for daily attendance. A trip to the post office is another errand given to the Greeter Staff.

Staff Meets the Challenge of a Demanding Year for Publications

The publication staff included the EAGLELITE and the COLUMBIAN staffs. Constantly winning battles with deadlines, the staff managed to complete the publication of the 1966 COLUMBIAN, edited and published nine issues of the EAGLELITE and met all of their deadlines on the 1967 COLUMBIAN. Many of the staff members worked overtime during the early weeks of summer to beat the final deadline. Other activities that the staff took part in were attendance at journalism clinics and a trip through the American Yearbook Company at Hannibal, Missouri.

Glee Club Performs for Civic Functions

The Girls' Glee Club, directed by Joseph Jackson, performed on many different occasions throughout the year. The Glee Club is an extra-curricular activity in which 19 girls participate. The officers, Cheryl Sackman, president; Kathy Stumpf, vice president; and Kathy Crimm, secretary, were instrumental in enforcing the rules and regulations of the club.

Mixed Chorus Serves as Class, Presents Public Performances

The mixed chorus served in a dual role, one as a regular scheduled class and the other as a performing group that took part in school and civic activities. Chorus was open to all students who wished to take it and the course was offered two different periods. Under the direction of Joe Jackson, the chorus performed at two PTA meetings, the Monroe County Music Festival, gave a Spring concert and sang at Baccalaureate.

The Columbia Boys' Quartet had a very popular first year and has proved to be very able in representing the school at various civic functions. The members of the quartet are David Riebeling, Randy Hoffmann, Richard Mundinger, and Steve Pflasterer. They were accompanied by Cheryl Sackman, Gene Henckler and Bob Strong.

The Columbia Boys' Quartet Popular at Civic Functions

"Fugue for Tinhorns" from "Guys and Dolls" was one of the selections sung by the Boys' Quartet for a performance at a basketball game.

The sixty piece concert band under the direction of Uhl O. Sackman serves a dual purpose. The primary purpose is educational with the emphasis on learning the best literature for modern band that the student's proficiency will permit. The second is to provide a ready source of musicians to perform for various school and civic functions. Some of the Activities the band engaged in this year were the Monroe County Sesquicentennial pageant at Waterloo, the homecoming parade at SIU Carbondale and the annual Monroe County Music Festival.

Two-fold Purpose of Concert Band Creates a Busy Calendar of Events

The annual winter concert was scheduled for February 12 which provided a fitting time for the band to present Aaron Copland's "A Lincoln Portrait". The narration was given by Kenneth S. Barger of the foreign language department. Bach's "Chorale and Fugue in A Flat" and selections from "Man of La Mancha" were included in the program to give the audience a variety of music.

Excitement, Noise and Spirit Added to Games by Pep Band

Pep, popcorn and perspiration, all a part of the winter scene during the basketball season, had a musical accompaniment furnished by the pep band. The pep band, a volunteer group from the concert band, played at all of the home basketball games as well as all of the pep sessions.

George Horsley served as student director of the pep band through the season.

One of the most popular songs with the fans is the Notre Dame Fight Song with the fans providing other than the original lyrics.

Many hours of rehearsal were needed to put on the final production.

A Three Act Comedy Exhibits Senior Talent

The Seniors displayed their individual talents in the mystery comedy "Finders Creepers." Written by Donald Payton, the play was a hilarious story about Wilhemina Nelson and her bosom pal Nina Maxwell visiting Uncle Bob's for the weekend. Wilhemina knew her uncle took a new job, but what she didn't know until it was too late is that uncle was a mortician.

Judy Beiermann Reigns As Basketball Queen

The beginning of the basketball season was highlighted by the crowning of Judy Beiermann as the 1966-67 Basketball Queen. She began her reign as the crown was placed on her head by Student Council President, George Horsley.

The royal court was appropriately escorted to the throne by the basketball players. Queen Judy and senior candidate, Carol Hert, were escorted by co-captains of the team, Jim Kremmel and Paul Frierdich. Retiring Queen Susan Volkert was brought to the throne by Tom Jehling, and the two junior candidates, Susan Curry and Becky Habermehl, had Dan Radison and Scott Smith as their escorts.

"Cherish," played by the Uhl Sackman Quintet, was the theme song of the 1966-67 Sno Queen Dance. Cupids, hearts, and an original painting by Karen Eyerly and Dianna Crawford helped to set a Valentine scene which added to the enchantment of the evening.

The suspense crescendoed to a climax as Norma Rehg was announced the '66-'67 Sno Queen.

Shirley Bergmann, senior attendant, was escorted by Gary Roediger.

Cheryl Sackman, junior attendant, was escorted by Dan Radison.

Pat Garris, junior attendant, was escorted by Dave Barks.

Plenty of Money Highlights 6th Musical Production

David Riebeling prays for more rain.

"Plenty of Money" not only provided musical entertainment for the public and student body, but offered educational value to those who participated in the production. The cast, which was chosen from the student body was led by Mary Lou Alderson, Randy Hoffman, David Riebeling, and Cheryl Sackman. Other lead soloists were Martha Nottmeier, Louise Barker, and Eric Huch. The members of the syndicate were portrayed by Rich Mundunger, Kent Mann, Danny Lepp, and Bill Woodcock. George Horsley, Dave Burks, Steve Pflasterer, Dennis Davis, and Austin Campbell played the parts of the FBI agents.

"I've got a swell idea!"

"I won't go!"

Mary Lou Alderson seems to have mastered the art of judo.

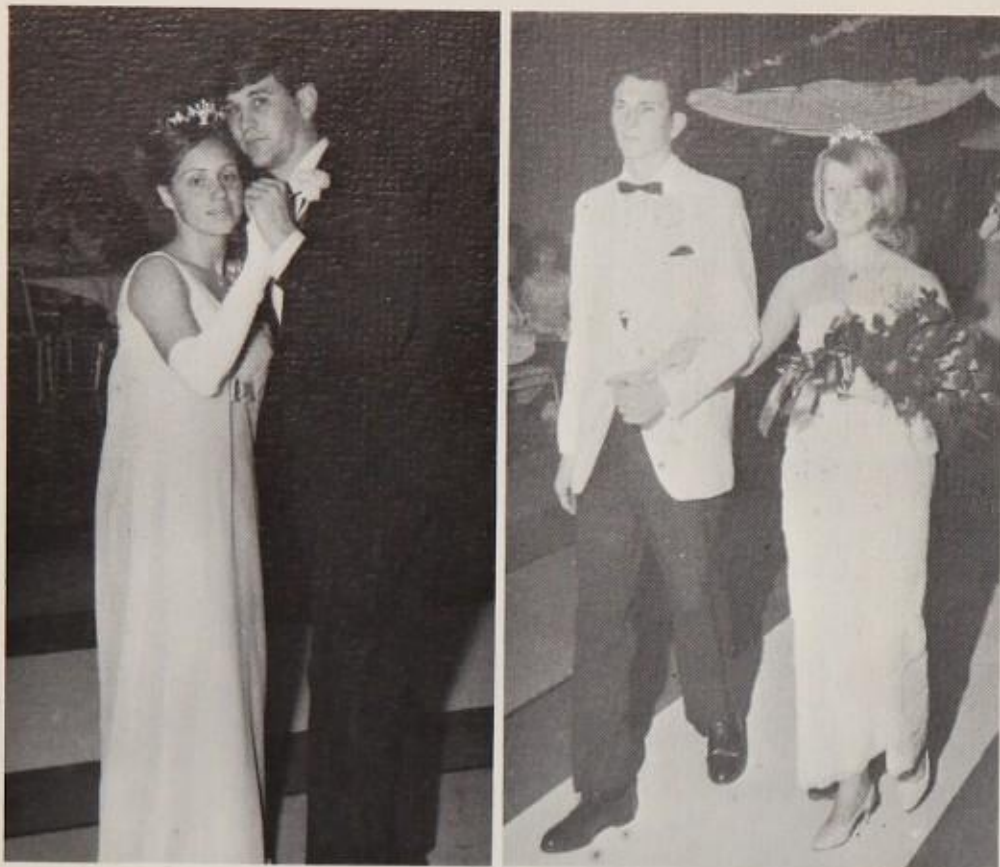

"But I didn't mean to hurt him!"

The pit band included Tom Jehling, Rich Greatting, Allen Hoffman, Dennis Franke, David Glaenzer, Lee Davis, Don Borcharding, Nancy Cash, Will Davenport, Eric Johnson, Mark Smith, Bob Strong, Gene Henkler, and Dennis Beiermann. The stage crew, headed by Pat Baumer and Steve Harres, included Danny Lepp, Bob Martin, Mike Crowder, Bill Woodcock, Kent Mann, Kathy Crimm, and Rich Munding.

The whole crew works for a job well done.

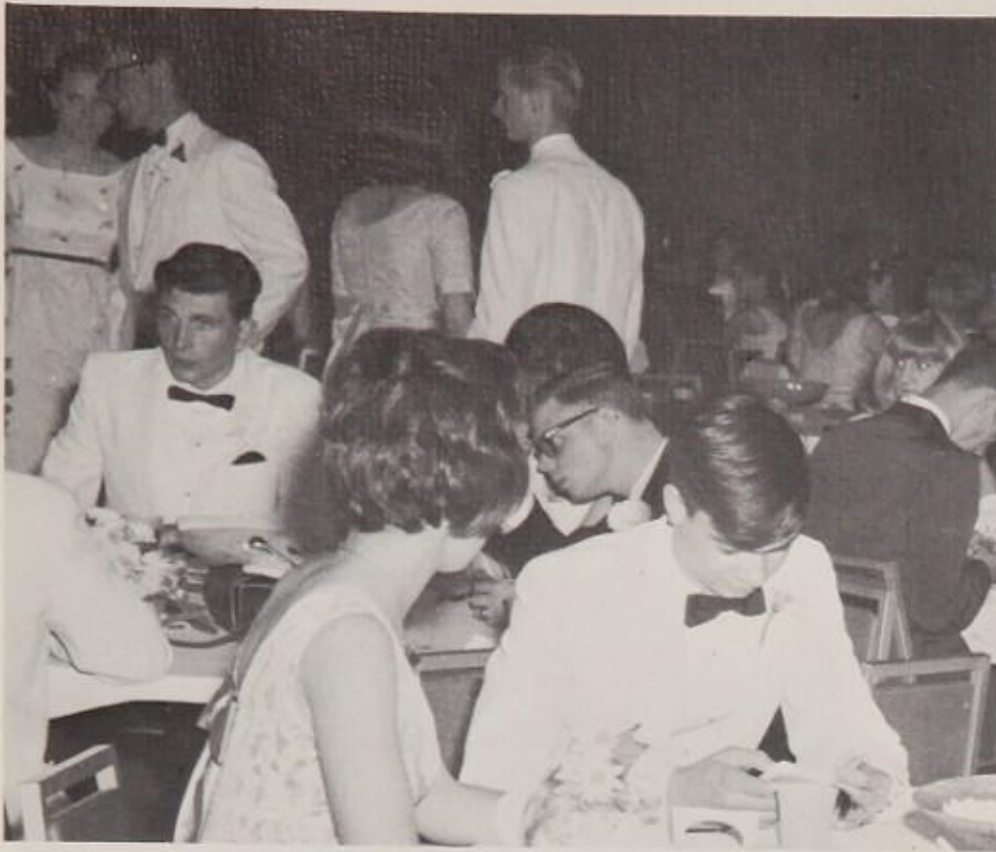

The hour was half past ten, the band was softly playing themes from past proms, "Moon River", "Ebb Tide", "Days of Wine and Roses", and a hush prevailed over the room as the retiring queen and her escort made their way slowly toward the dais. With a low bow, each candidate saluted Queen Judy whose reign was coming to an end. Junior Class President Dan Radison proclaimed that the new Prom Queen could be Franny Bennor who then took her place on the throne to receive her crown.

"Three Coins in a Fountain" Sets Theme for Jr.-Sr. Prom

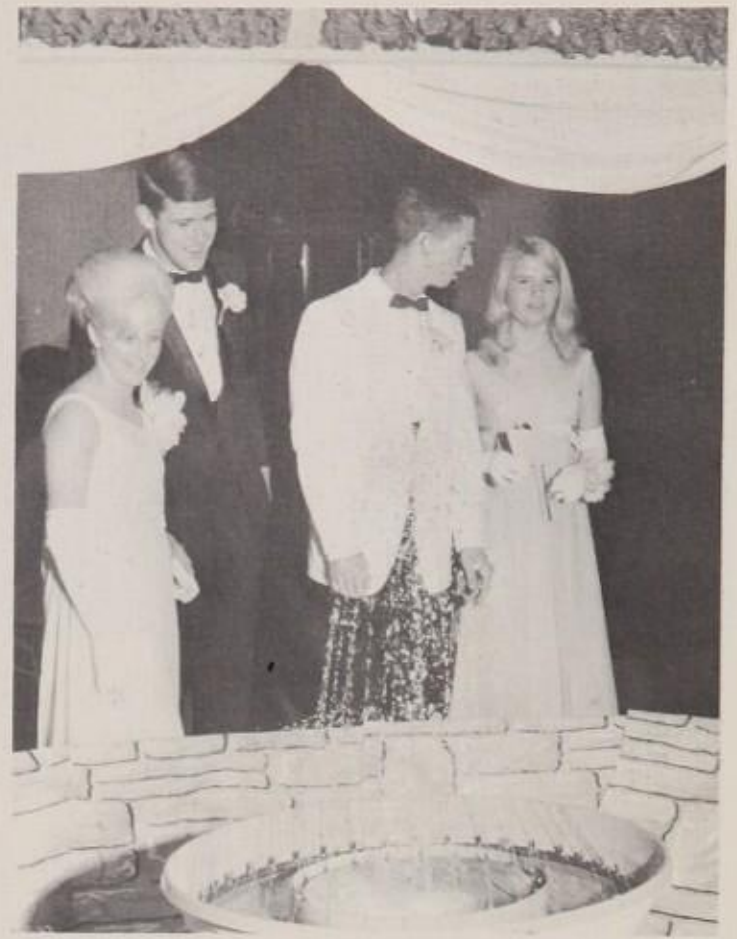

The members of the royal court were Retiring Queen Judy Stumpf escorted by Larry Sifford, the 1967-68 Prom Queen Franny Bennor escorted by Ron Esary and attendants Sandy Roediger with Dennis Diehl, and Kathy Boyd with Steve Harres.

Giant pillars and a bubbling, ever-changing colored fountain accented the garden setting for the theme, "Three Coins In A Fountain," as the Jubilee Room of Fischer's Restaurant was transformed into a dream-like world on the evening of May 6, 1967. As each couple entered the delightful world of a flowing fountain, it was the beginning of a night to be remembered, the night of the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Ron Mitchell Orchestra provided soft, enchanting music for dancing.

Many a wish was made with each coin tossed into the fountain. Rita Diehl, Alan Hoffmann, Steve Harres, and Kathy Boyd take a respite to admire the dominating centerpiece.

At the stroke of midnight, a buffet supper was served.

Led by the leading junior, Sandra Roediger, the class marched in to receive their honors.

Class of '67 Makes First Formal Appearance of Graduation Exercises

Each year students receive recognition for their efforts through the annual Awards Night. On May 17, special credit for jobs well-done was extended to members of the student body. For underclassmen this night was incentive to do better next year--for seniors, this was the first part of their graduation exercises. In the two pictures at the right, Uhl Sackman presents Carol Hert and Robert Strong with keys for COLUMBIAN editors and Judith Stumpf, David Burks and James Habermehl keys for EAGLE-LITE editors. Below Shirley Bergmann, Paul Friedrich, Gary Roediger, and James Kremmel were presented the Service Awards by B. D. Middleton for four years of unselfish service.

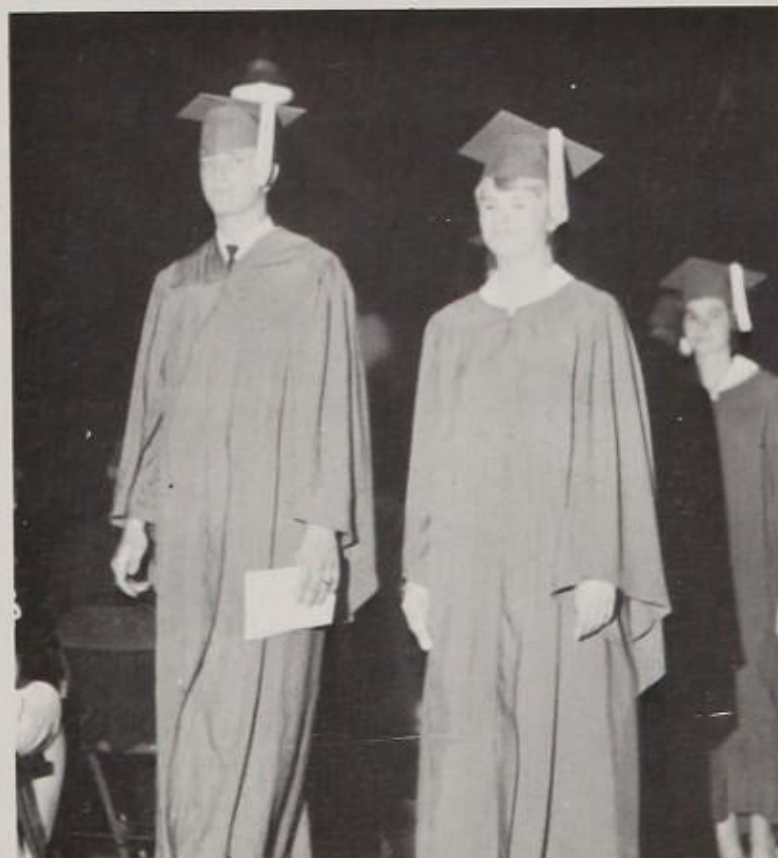

The High School Chorus and the Girls' Glee Club each sang two sacred selections. Mr. Jackson directed the musical part of the program.

Baccalaureate Address Delivered by Rev. Norman H. Rahmoeller

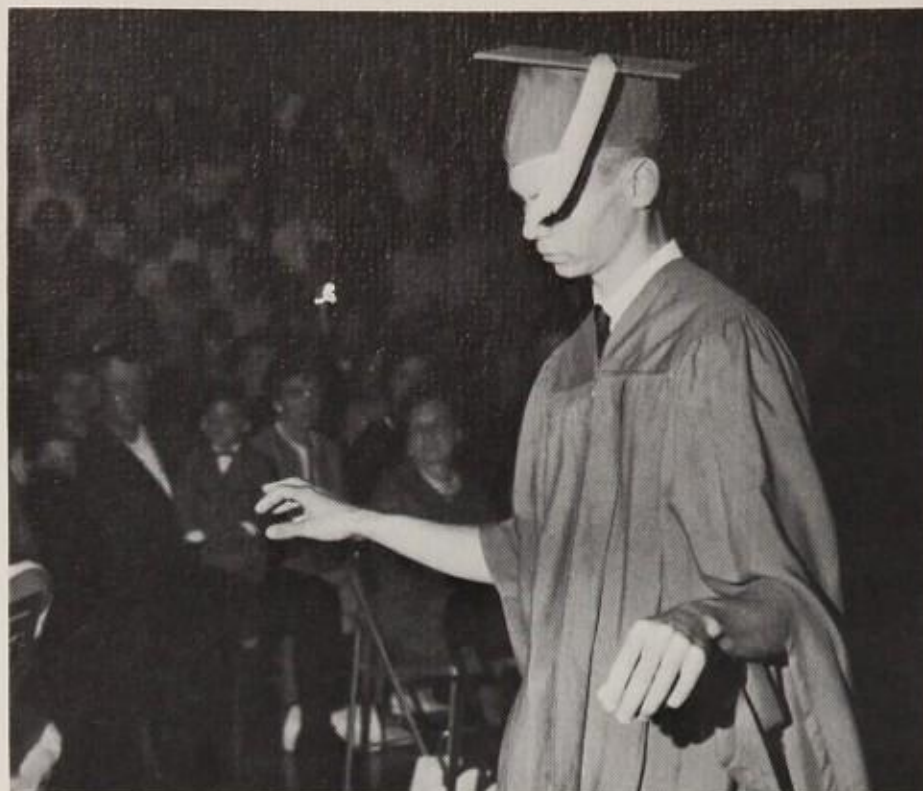

Baccalaureate, a solemn, dignified and inspiring service was held Sunday, May 28. The new gym had been appropriately decorated by a committee from the junior class.

The message was delivered by Reverend Norman H. Rahmoeller of St. Paul United Church of Christ. Reverend Rahmoeller expressed his pleasure for the invitation to speak at this service. He stated that he felt a parallel existed with the class of 1967 ending a significant period in their lives at Columbia High, and his ending of an eight year tenure at Columbia.

Linda Koch and Gene Haberl enter the gymnasium to the stately strains of "Pomp and Circumstance".

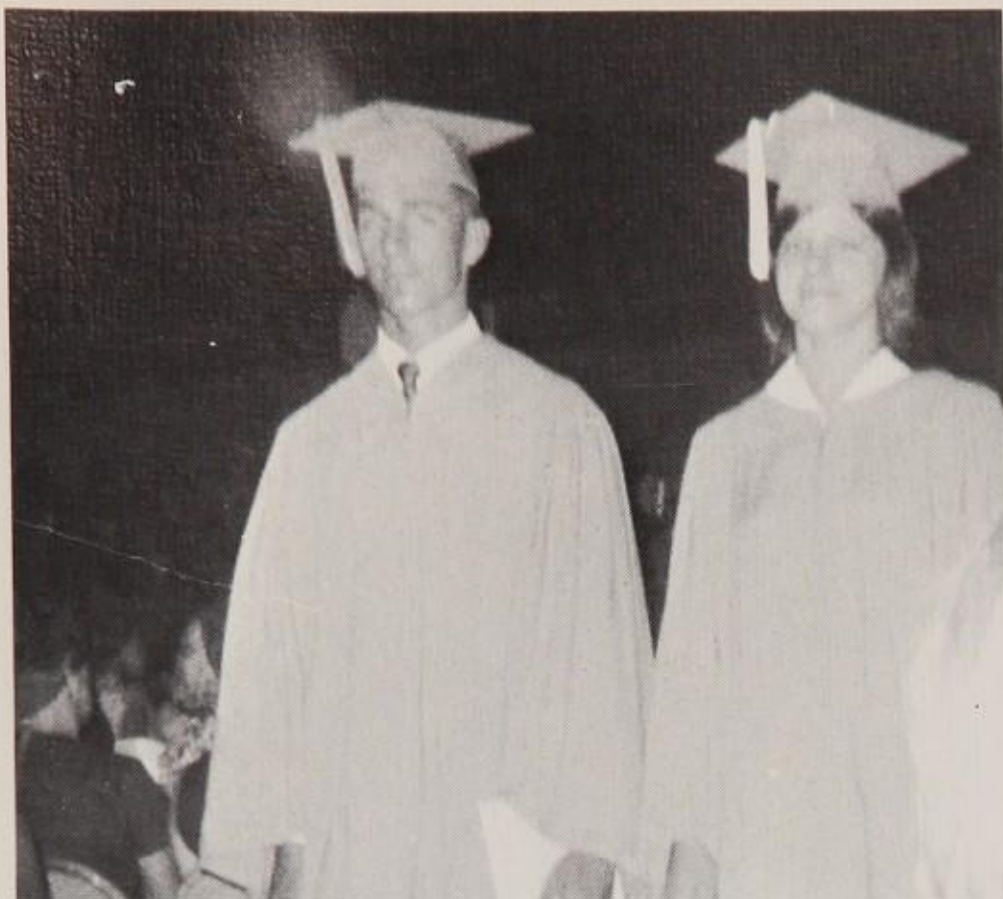

Tom Jehling, the 1967 John Phillip Sousa Award winner, directs the concert band in "Pageant".

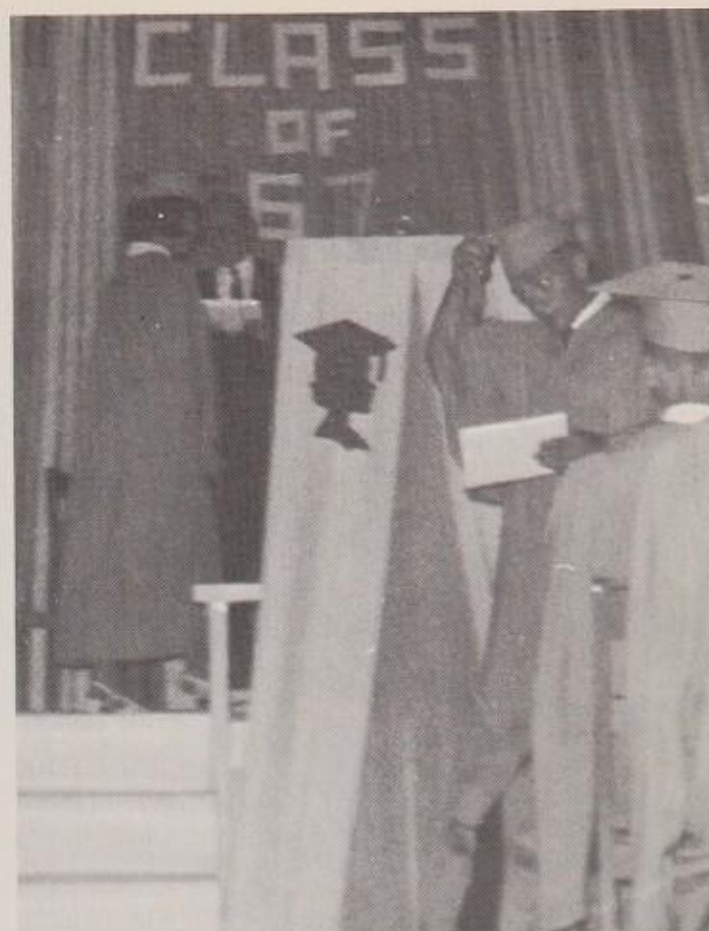

1967 Graduating Class Hears Steven B. Stevens of KXOK

"What will be your master?" was the question put to the Senior Class of 1967 by Steven B. Stevens, newscaster of radio station KXOK St. Louis, during the commencement address delivered June 2, 1967. Mr. Stevens warned the seniors to not become enslaved to a shallow cause or an unworthy desire. Numerous poetic quotations were used by Mr. Stevens to add colorful meaning to his remarks.

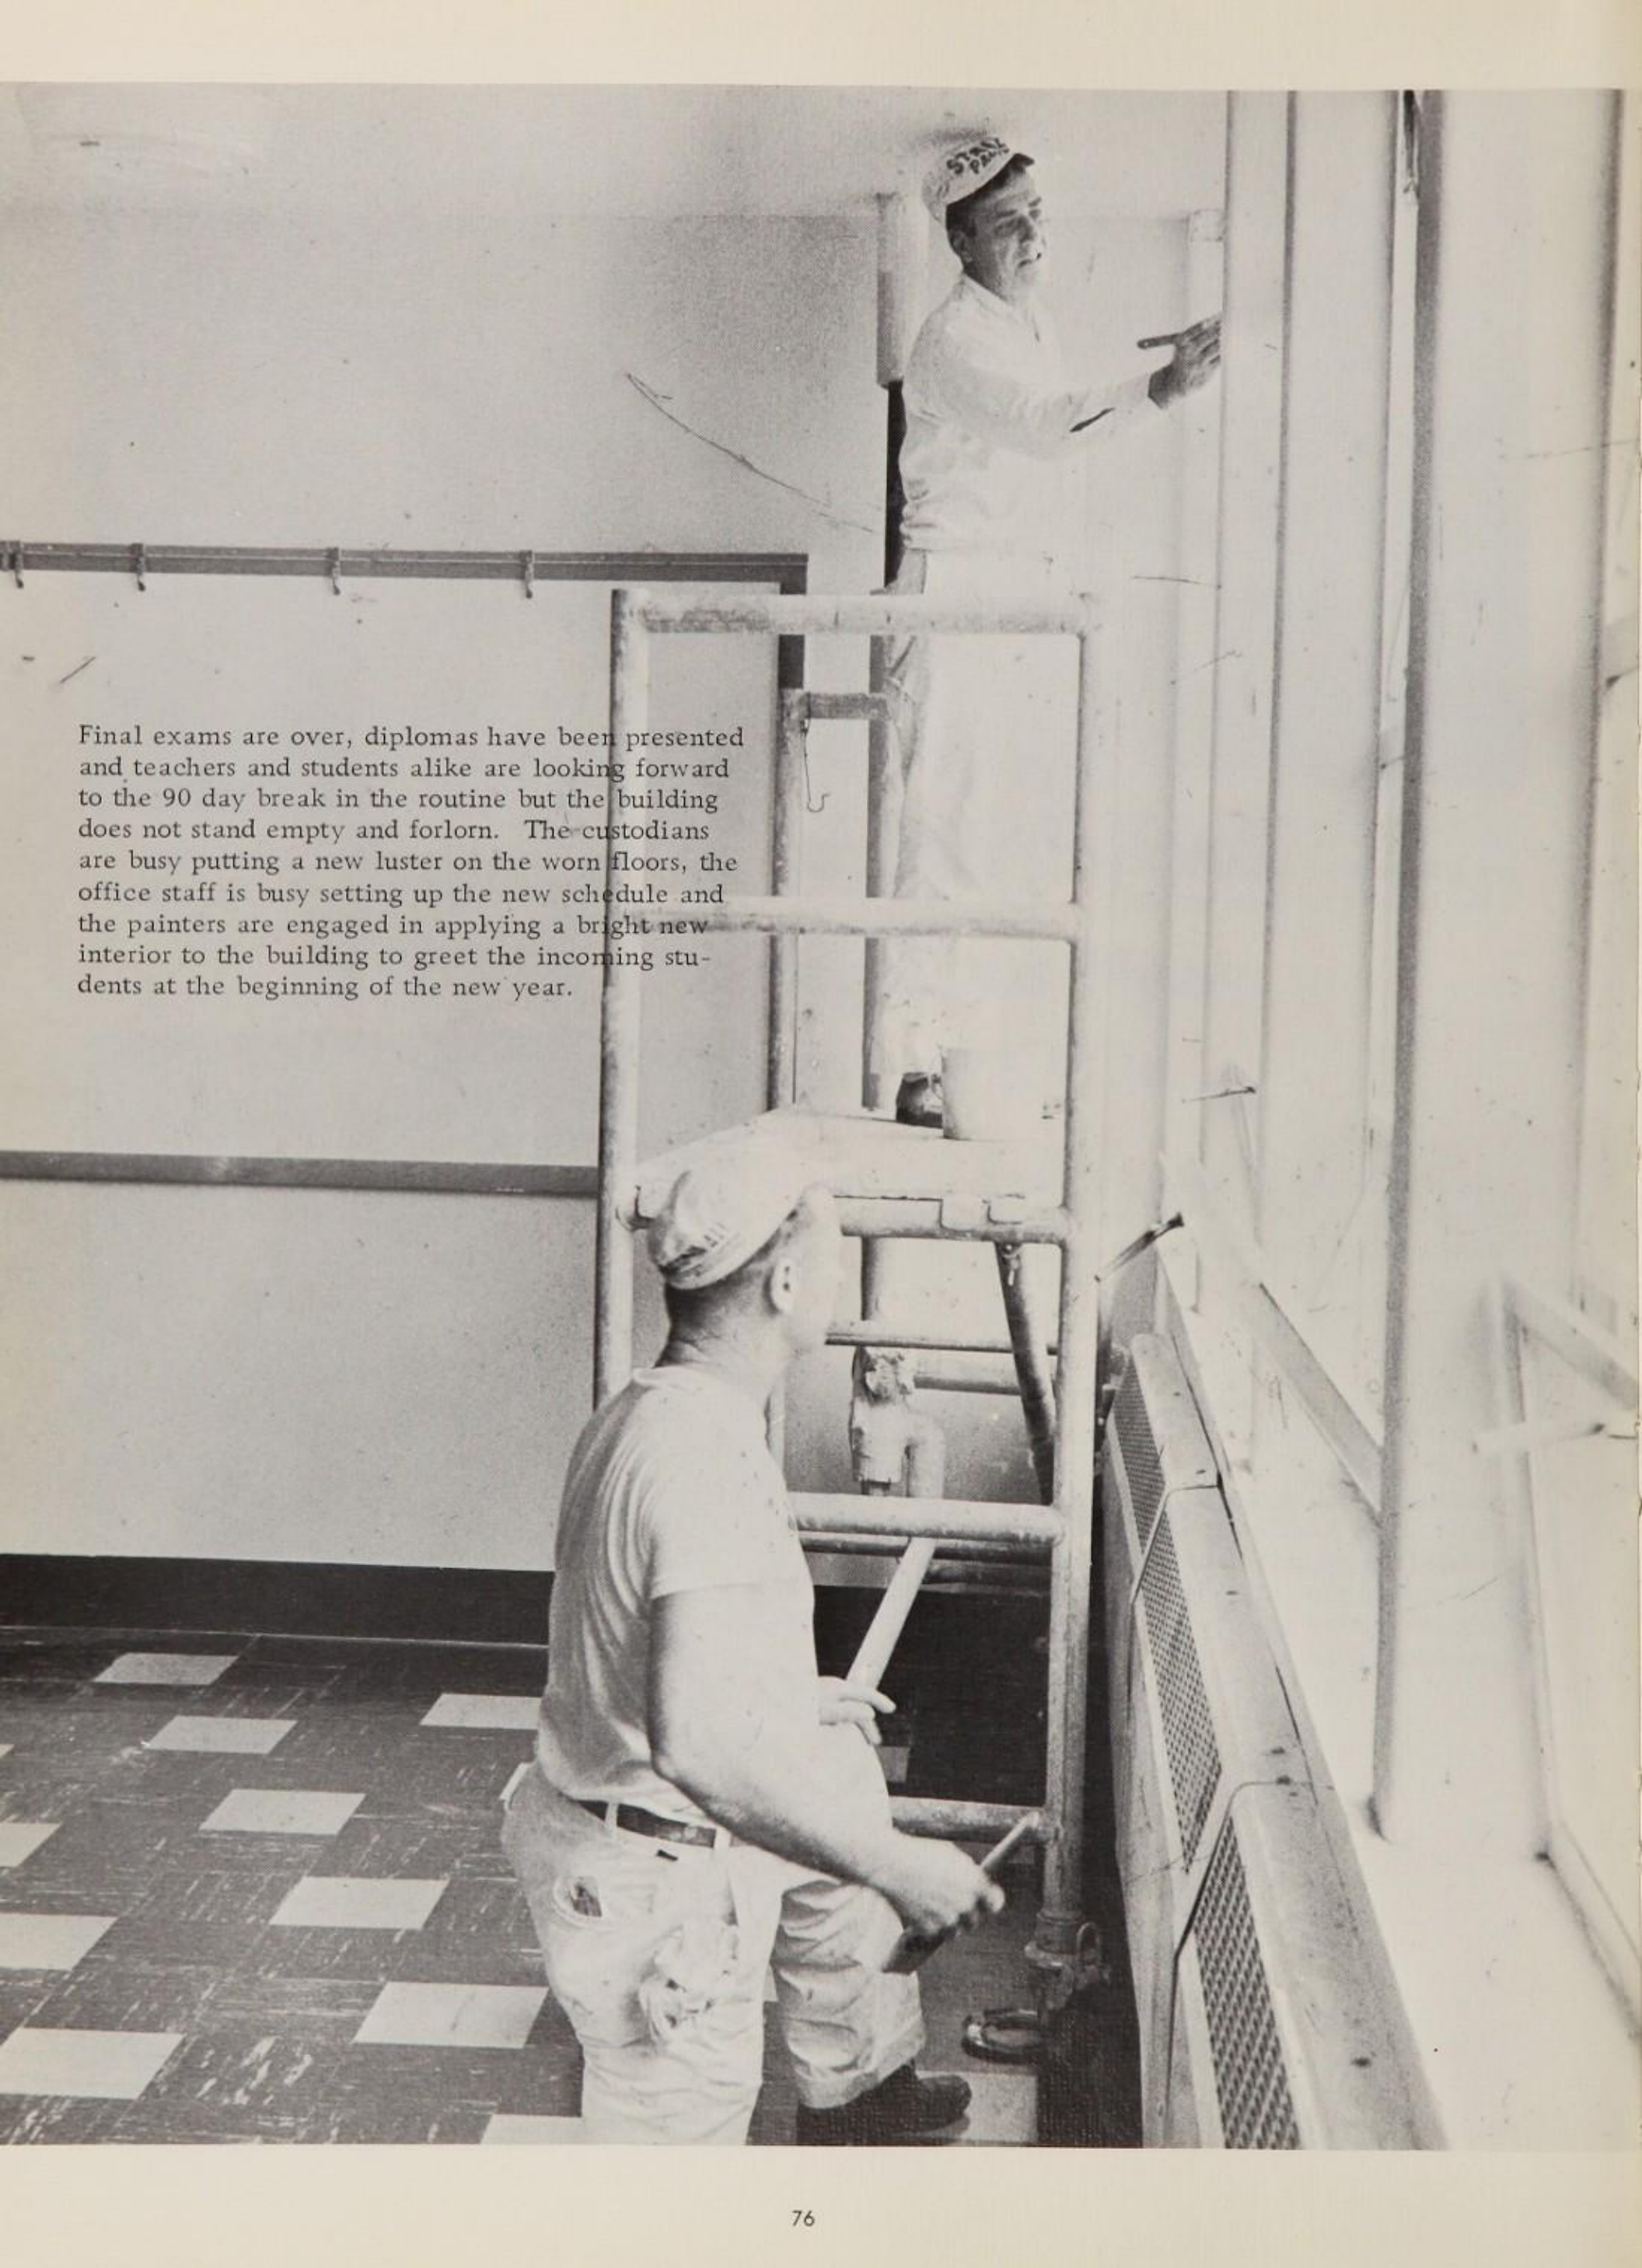

James Kremmel and Judy Beiermann clutch their diplomas just a little more tightly as they realize that this recessional is the last one for them at C.H.S.

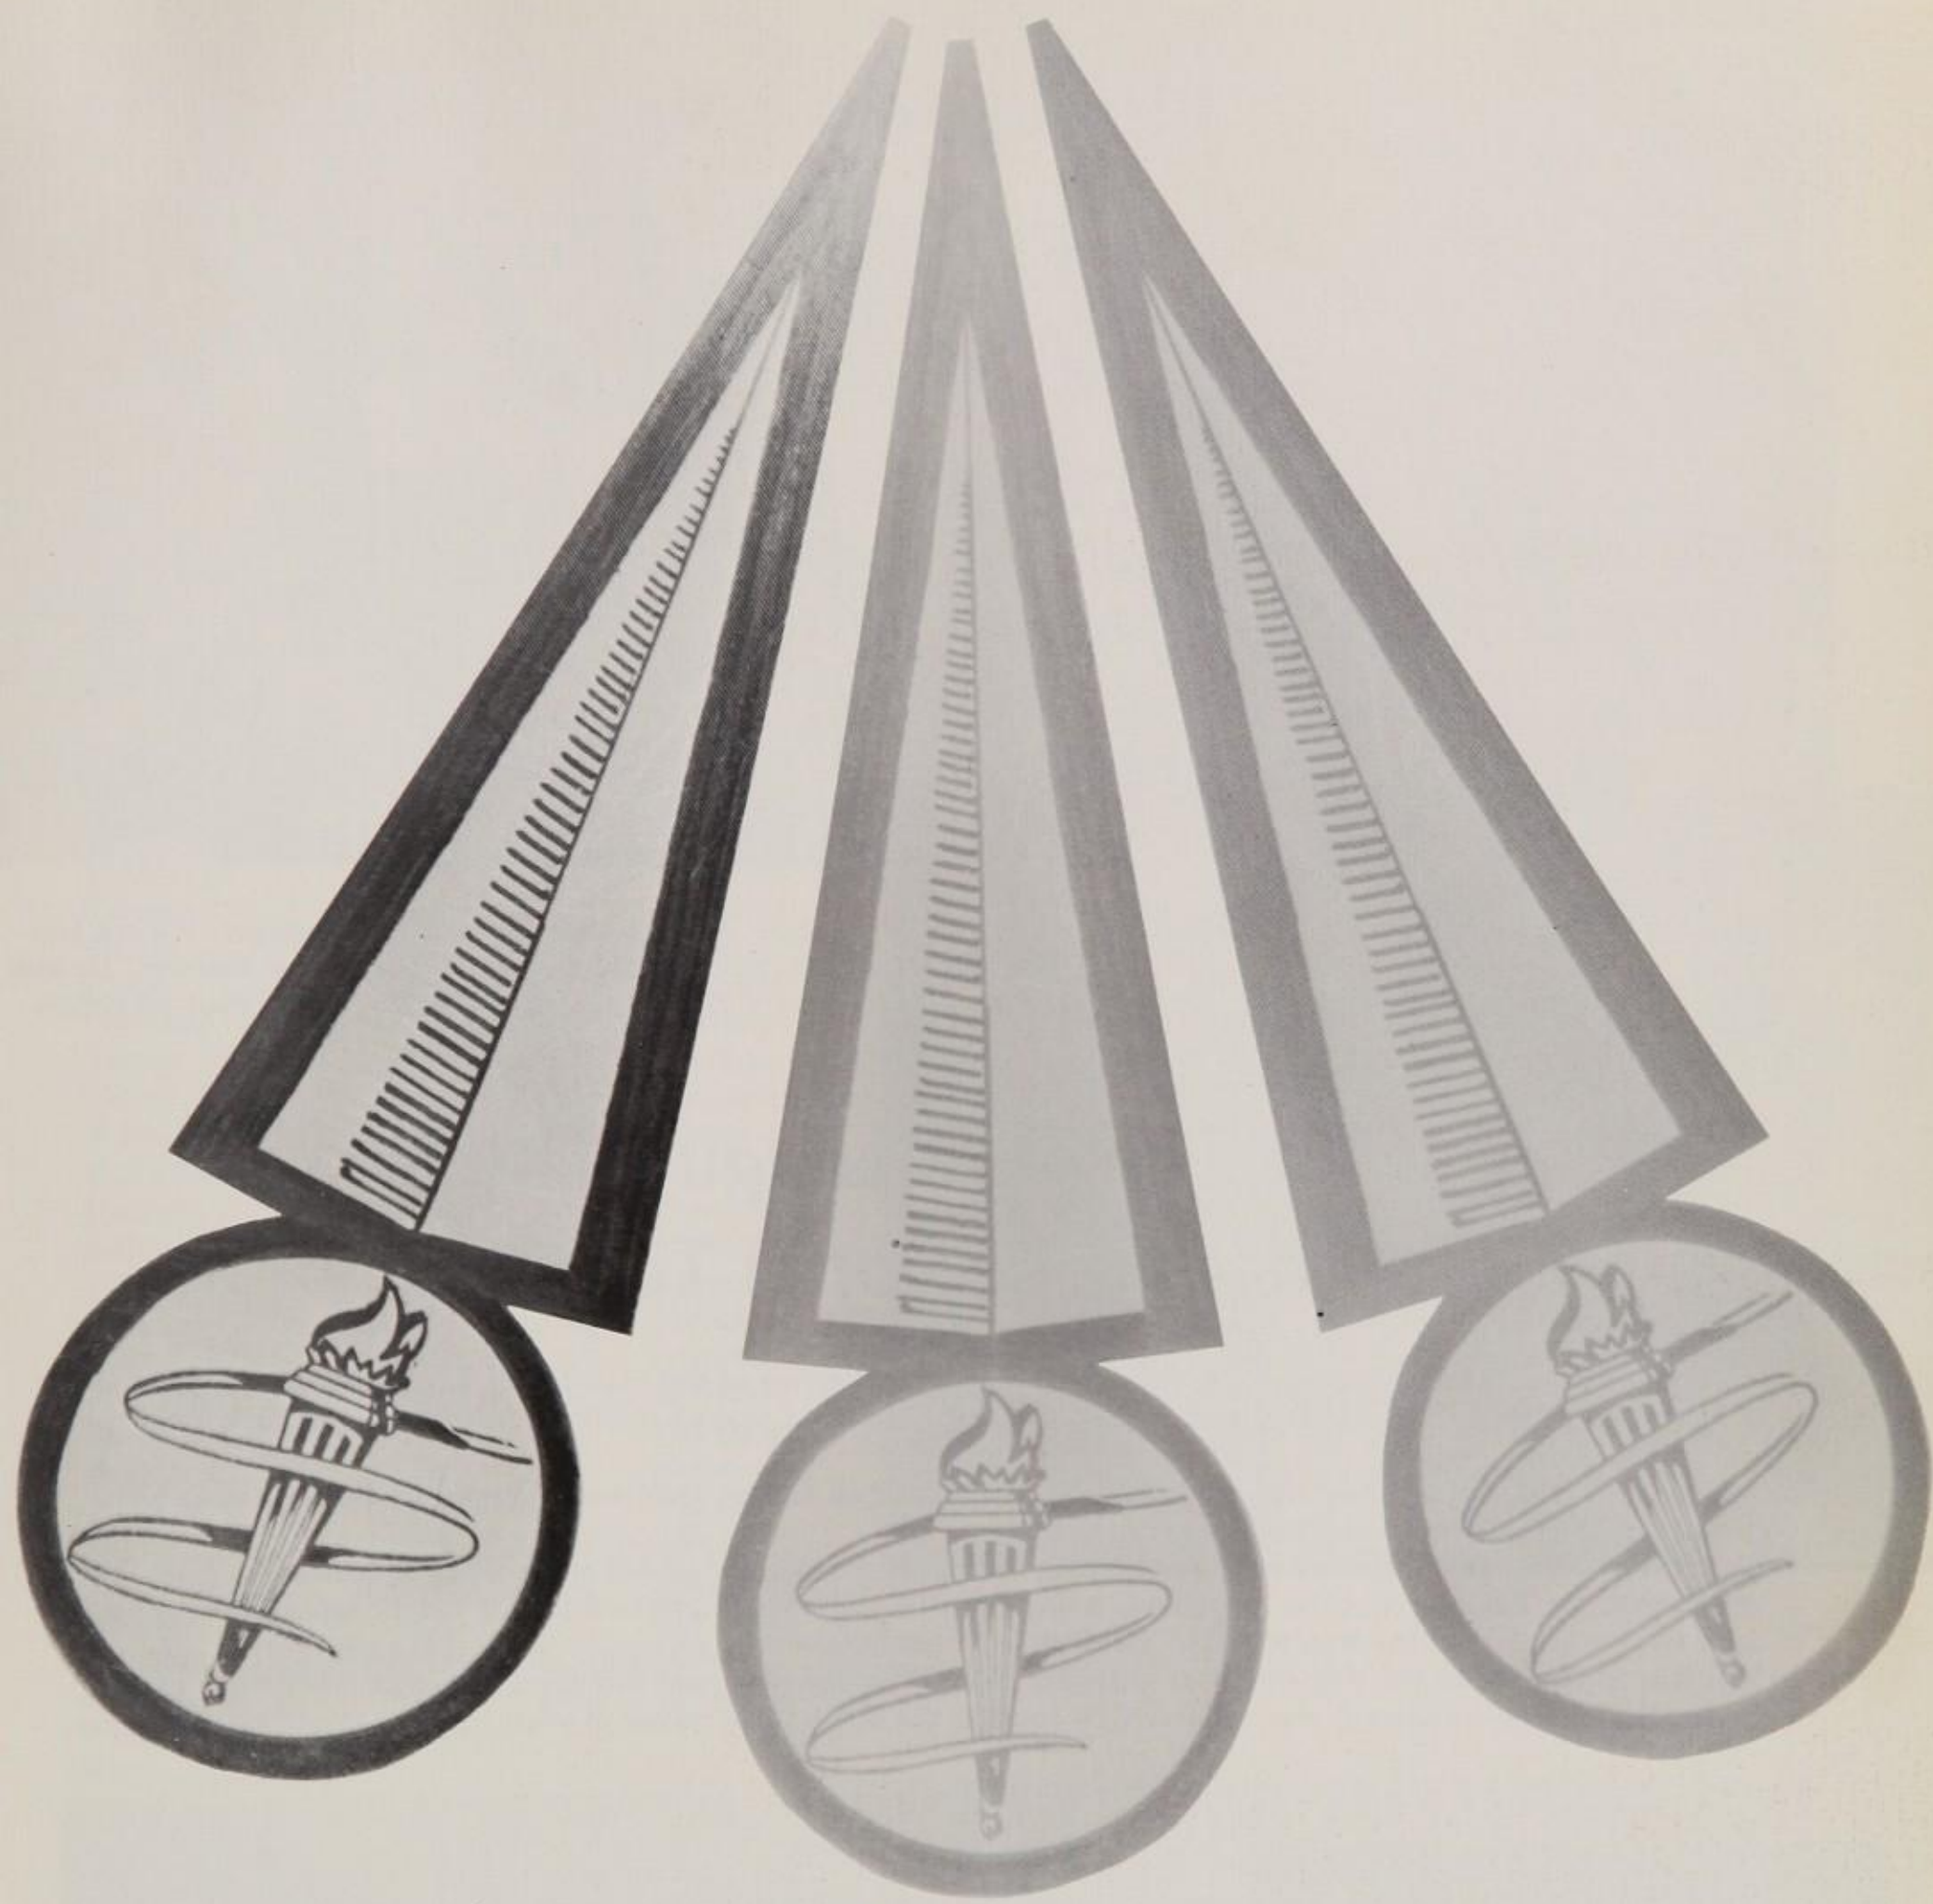

Paul Friedrich remembers to make the traditional tassel change after receiving his diploma.

Dave Burks gets the congratulatory handshake and the coveted diploma from Board of Education President B. D. Wohlwend. Sixty-nine other seniors received the same recognition during the Commencement exercises June 2. B. D. Middleton, Superintendent of Schools presented the class to the Board of Education just prior to the presentation of diplomas. Many of the new graduates greeted relatives and friends at various post-graduation parties.

Final exams are over, diplomas have been presented and teachers and students alike are looking forward to the 90 day break in the routine but the building does not stand empty and forlorn. The custodians are busy putting a new luster on the worn floors, the office staff is busy setting up the new schedule and the painters are engaged in applying a bright new interior to the building to greet the incoming students at the beginning of the new year.

SPORTS

Eagles Cop Two League Titles Advance to Regional Tourney

A clean sweep of two conferences was one of the accomplishments of the high flying Eagles during the 1966-67 baseball campaign. This marks the first time that any Columbia team has won a Cahokia Conference title in any sport.

An undefeated fall season got the moundsmen off and running and an undefeated record in the Kaskaskia Conference made the season a little sweeter.

One of the heart breaking moments of the season was Gary Roediger's no-hit effort against Belleville West that ended with the Eagles giving the opponents a one run win. Also to be remembered is the 13 inning win against arch rival Waterloo in the first round of the District Tournament.

The loss to Carlyle in the Regional was a pitcher's duel through nine and two-thirds innings. With the game called because of darkness it was necessary to contact the IHSA for a ruling at what point to continue the game.

Junior Varsity Squad Learns Play-To-Win Lesson Thoroughly

Six School Records Set by Young Track Team

The 66-67 Track Team was much improved over teams of the past. More intensive workouts and the use of film-strips proved most beneficial. Although there were only three seniors on the team, six school records were set and one was tied. Records were established in the 180 yard low hurdles, the 440 yard run, the mile run, the high jump, and the shot put and discus. The record for the 880 yard relay was tied. The team competed in the Cahokia Conference Meet, held at Waterloo and the District Meet at Alton as well as competing in several dual and triangular meets.

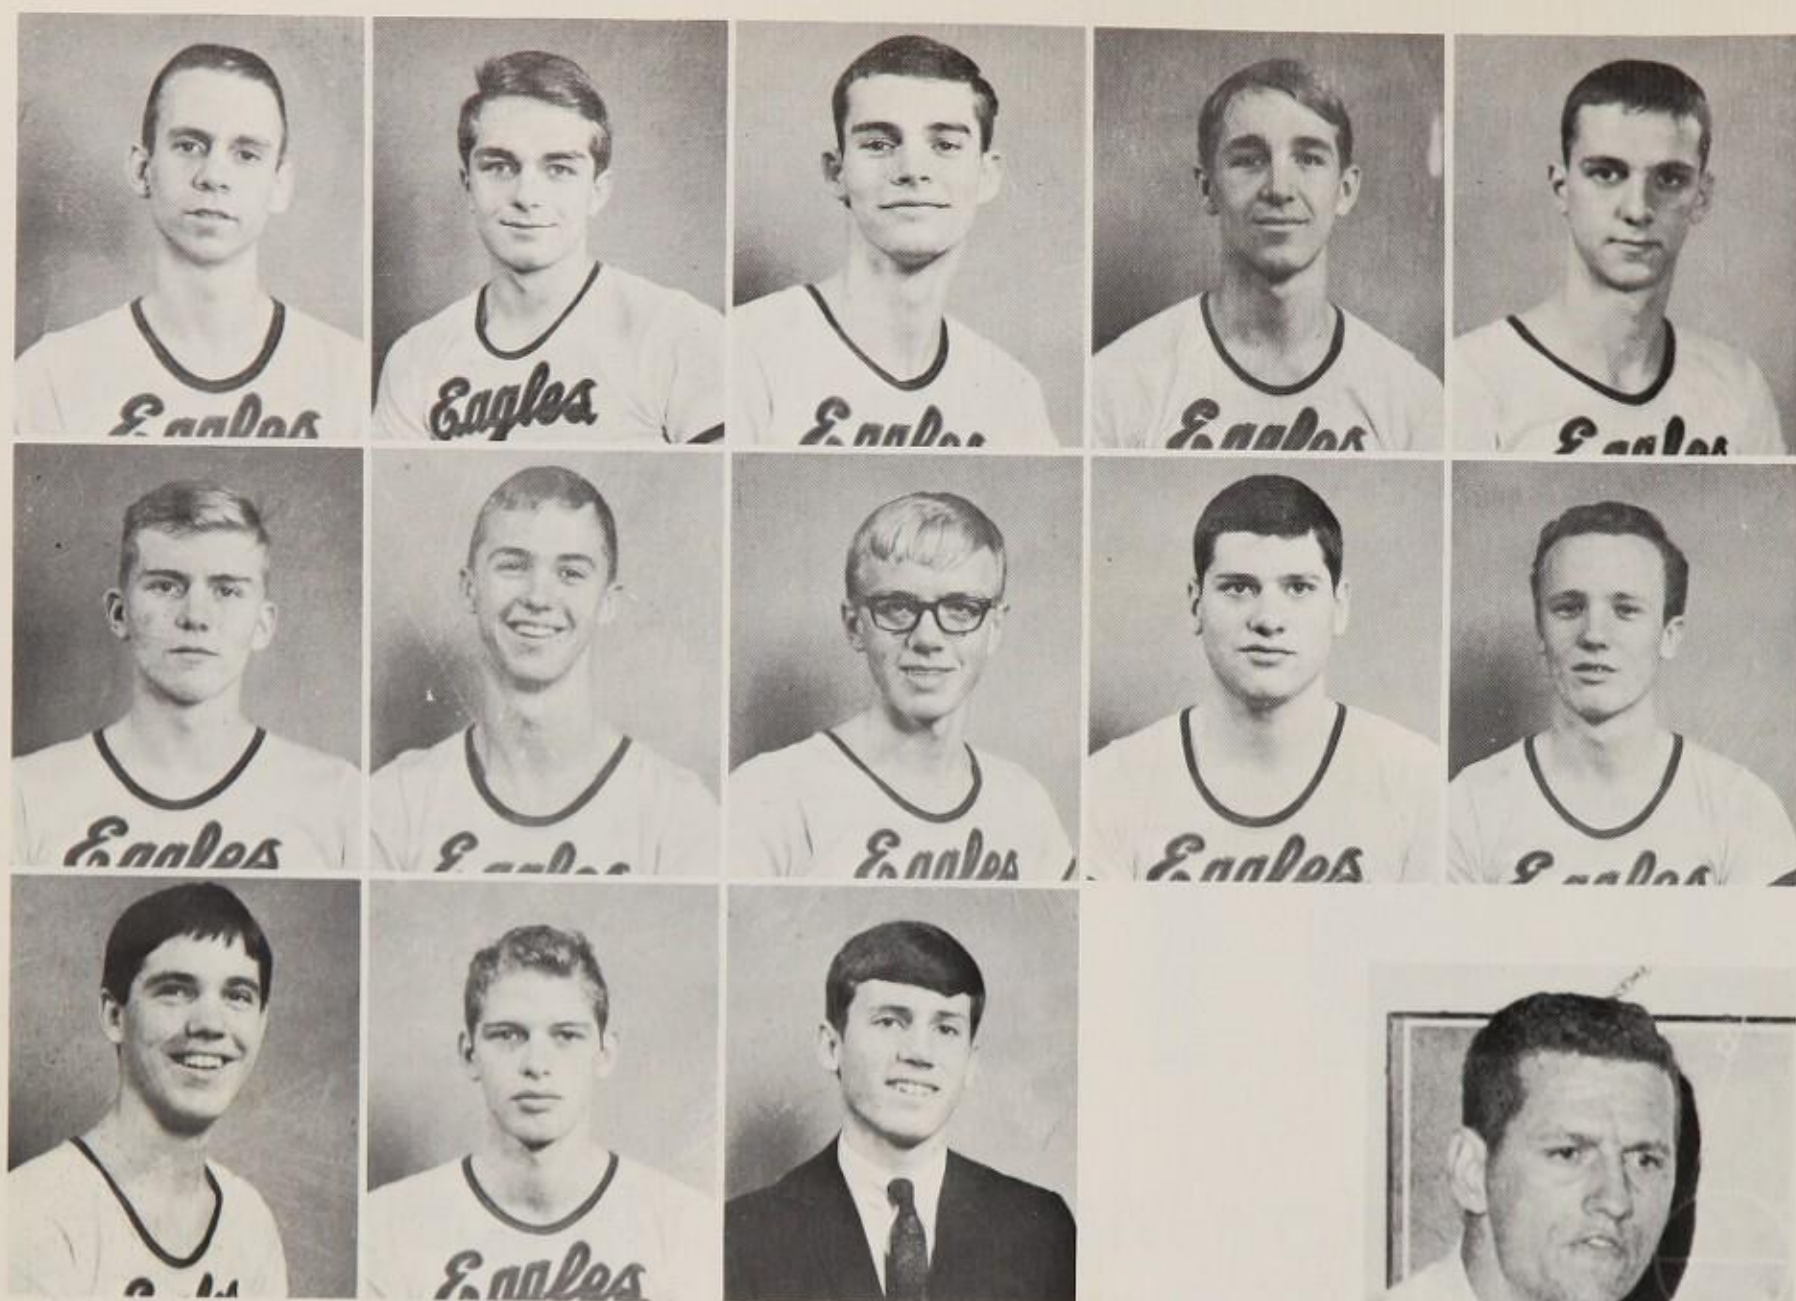

Harriers Make Good Showing During Enlarged X-C Schedule

The Cross-Country team for the 66-67 season posted a 5-7 record. Starting practice before the school year began, the team was in good shape as they won their first four meets. The team had many underclassman, but most of the boys improved their times considerably for the grueling 2-mile event. During the year the team ran in the Cahokia Conference Meet, held at Lebanon and the District Meet held at Alton.

Eagle Five Shows Toughness in Cahokia Conference Race

The Varsity Basketball Eagles displayed hustle, desire and a stingy defense to finish the Cahokia Conference in third place. The Eagles were in the thick of the battle for the conference title until late in the season when a defeat by Mascoutah and Waterloo blocked the victory road for the local netmen.

The Eagles compiled a 7 and 5 conference won-lost record and an overall record of 11 and 15.

Winning Ways of Jr. Varsity Indicates Promising Future

Experience through competition and hustle, hustle, hustle . . . this marks the pathway to that coveted spot in the varsity line-up and the Junior Varsity Basketball Squad displayed these qualities in great abundance. Coach Shannon's charges brought home the big trophy from the Waterloo Sophomore Tournament plus the lion's share of victories during the season.

Fans and Parents Fete Teams at Annual Athletic Banquet

The Athletic Banquet, sponsored by the Turner's, was held at the Turner Hall on May 13, 1967. A large crowd, which included the athletes, their parents, the cheerleaders and mascot, and many of the Eagle's fans, had a dinner of roast beef. The Master of Ceremonies, Mike Conrad, introduced the speaker, Dave Puddington, football coach at Washington University. Mr. Puddington talked about the many words beginning with "c" which were attributes of being a good athlete.

The Gustav Pentzler Award was presented to the most valuable athlete in the three competitive sports, Track and Cross Country, Baseball, and Basketball.

Cheerleaders Exhibit Leadership at Games

Carol Hert

Norma Rehg

Susan Curry

The Varsity cheerleaders are a group of industrious girls who contributed time and energy toward the 66-67 season. Besides keeping a full schedule, including two tournaments and District Tournament, the girls spent many hours in diligent practice. They illustrated sportsmanship, enthusiasm, as well as leadership in supporting the team. The cheerleaders were chosen by the student body on their ability to lead the students in supporting the team and showing school spirit.

The Eagle was Shirley Bergmann.

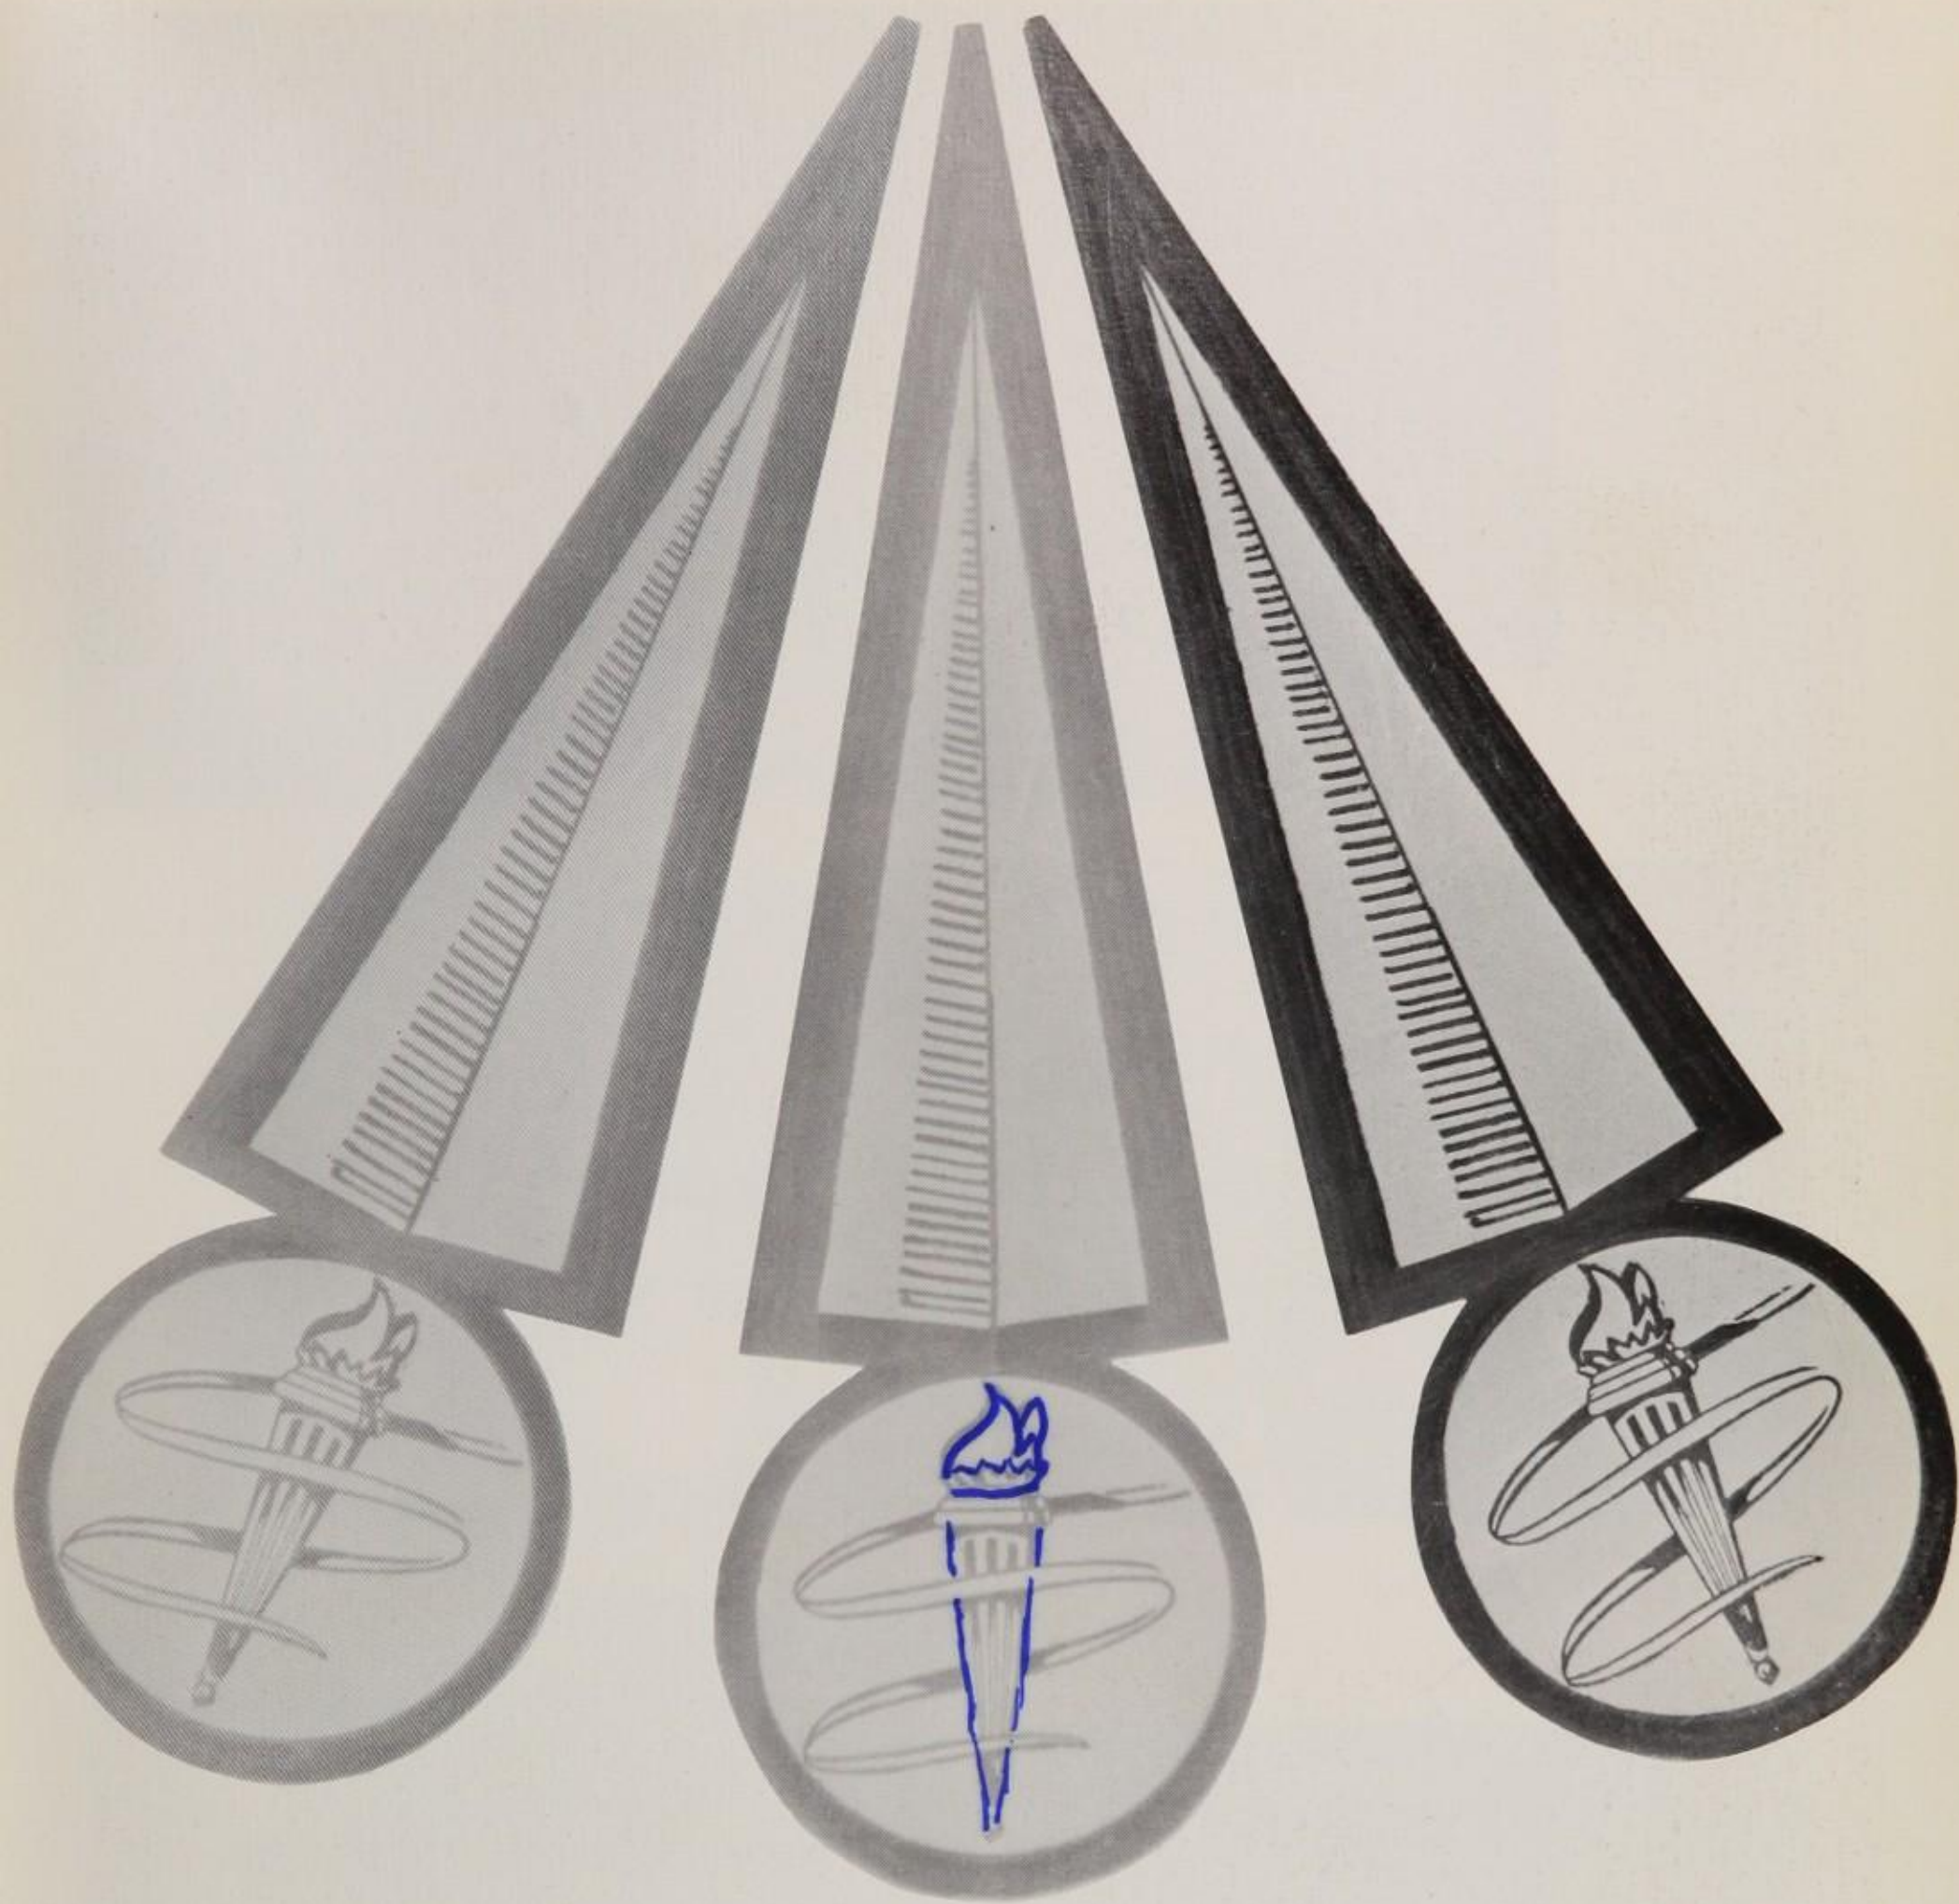

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen by student vote on the basis of their ability to lead the students in vocal support for the Eagles, present their school spirit and create enthusiasm among the fans in leading school chants and cheers during the games.

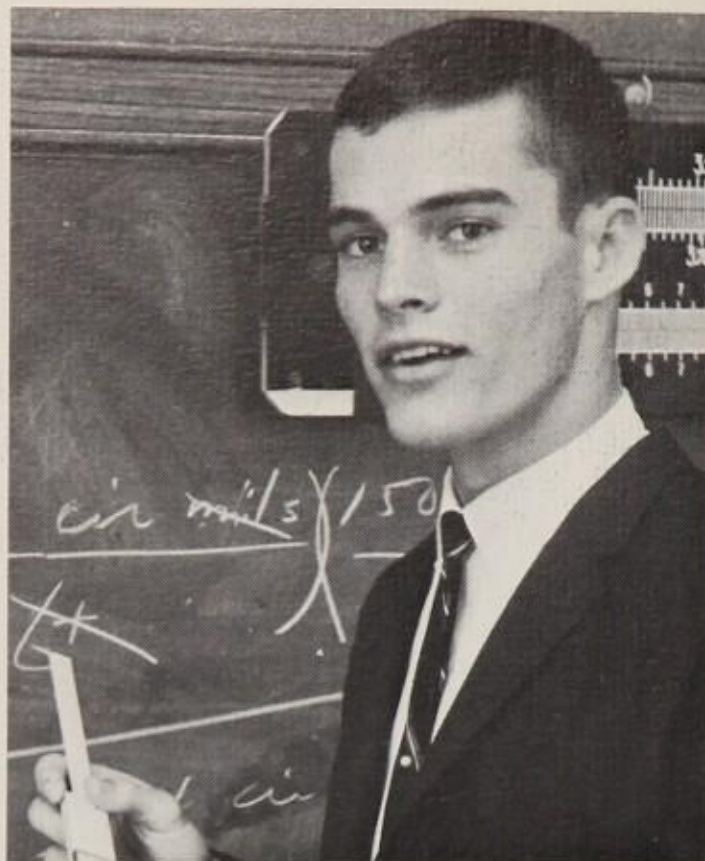

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders were Linda Ballentyne, Gail Arnin, Joann Diehl, and Gena Radison.

Millard Munding and Al Lepp strive to keep the school halls neat and clean.

Al. New Addition Makes a Better Service Staff

The bus drivers, Robert Rey, Carl Wink, Albert Jahr, Wilbur Gummersheimer, Adolph Steppig, Millard Munding, and John Durrer help to have the students here on time.

Mrs. Delores Hoffman, a registered nurse, is the newest addition to the service staff. Mrs. June Weisenborn is the cafeteria manager for the unit schools.

The cafeteria workers, Leona Halleran, Violet Stumpf, Rose Blittersdorf, and Jeannette Martin, provide the faculty and students with hot lunches.

Mrs. Marjorie Andrea, personal secretary to Mr. Middleton, aids the school in its correspondence.

Mrs. Marjorie Andrea

Mrs. Violet Frank, bookkeeper, works to have all the school accounts accurate.

Dear Pussys,
Have fun
with the boys.
You can do whatever you want, but don't do what I do.
Lots of fun
with the boys
in your future.
